

“You Are Now Ready To Cross The Finish Line” - Sananda

“Sananda”, “One Who Serves 1 and 2” channeled by James McConnell

“Ashira” and “Divine Mother” channeled by Dr. Susan Sammarco

(Note: these messages were given during our weekly PFC group in Glendale, AZ on September 13, 2015 over Blog Talk Radio with Hollow Earth Network)

“One Who Serves”

Greetings to you. It is good to be here with all of you at this time. To speak out to all of you! What a wonderful contraption this is that allows us to be in your living rooms, your bedrooms, wherever you might be. It is so exciting for all of us. And you were expecting “Sananda”, were you not? Yes, “Sananda” will be coming through as James spoke of. This is the funny one, with a Tibetan accent that he first spoke of.

We are here to introduce ourselves. He did not really speak very much about us. We are an us. We are not an I. We are the “One Who Serves”. This is a title we have taken on but it will not be for too much longer. Soon we will be becoming an “I” too, moving along with the shift. Just wanted to take a moment to introduce ourselves before turning the floor over to “Sananda”. We have been with the James a very long time. He has been our compadre and we have been his. He has been student and for some of the time we have been a student.

There has been much push and pull, is that the phrase with this group and we continue to be with you. However, we are coming to the point of being more fully with you. We will enjoy meeting you and not coming down to where you are now but you are going to come up and join us here. We are going to meet you half way. Now we are going to release to allow “Sananda” to come through and yes, he has a message. We will be back after that to answer questions with “Ashira” who is standing by.

“Sananda”

This is “Sananda”. It is a great time to be with you here at this point. It is a great frequency that has developed here on this planet. You who are listening on these calls have no idea about how far you have come and how far you have yet to go.

There are so many things happening, so many things going on in the background, it is going to be beyond belief when all of things begin to be revealed even more than they have been. And there is so much more that is coming.

But we are going to back up just a moment here. Back up to the beginning when many of you were there, many of you were with us. At that time the call went out, the call for the volunteers to come to Gaia. To once again open the darkness to the light. First you had to choose yourselves and then you had to be chosen. It was not where everybody put up there hand and said, "I am going. I am going." Not everybody was selected. It was not that way at all. It was a conclave that had occurred. You could say it was a galaxy far, far away and a long time ago. It was your "Star Wars" kind of thing that we know of.

And it is those kinds of things that were very accurate but at that time we all came together and decided that there needed to be something done. You knew that you needed to become a part of the process, knowing that it would not be an easy road, knowing that it would be fraught with many difficulties and many obstacles. But yet you came. You came to assist. You came to bring the light, to anchor the light here again. But what a job there would be, what a difficulty to do this.

When we first came here, there was a great deal of darkness. The light was barely shining through. But with all the travails you have gone through, lifetime after lifetime and after lifetime you will come to the point now where it will be all worth it! You will wonder what it will be like at the end when you finish this job.

And here you are now at the finish. I have said many times that you are in a race, what you would call a marathon. You have been running this race a long time and now you are coming to the finish line. You will cross and behind some are struggling; some have fallen and cannot get back up. Some are crawling now just to get to the line. Of course, there are those who race across.

The difference here is that once you cross the finish line (in your normal marathon) you are done, you don't go back to help your brothers and your sisters. You, my friends, will be doing that. You will be crossing the line and you will be going back to assist. Many of you will decide to do that. Not all, but many. Because why? Because you came here to be of service. That is the reason you came here. You will go back to serve others. You will only be thinking of service.

So, I tell you now. You have come full circle. You are at the point where you will be making the Shift. Everyone will be making the Shift at one point or another. Can I tell you that the "Wave" is coming? Yes. Can I tell you that the "Wave" is here? Yes. We have been telling you about how to prepare for this. And "Wave X" and the "Tsunami of Love" is all one. It is all coming together; it is reaching the crescendo as was given earlier.

And you now are at that point where you are going to be called upon to be the mentors, to be teachers, to be the ones who will be there to assist those who come after you. You will be the ones who go back to assist your brothers, your sisters because they are floundering, they are having a difficult time. Many are still asleep but their alarm clocks are starting to go off just as yours did at a certain point. Now is the time that many of their clocks are going off.

They will come to an understanding that this is not the way it was supposed to be. This is not what we came here for. And now they will begin to ask questions. Just as you asked questions, they will begin to ask questions. Who will be there to answer their questions? You will be!

Not so much us. Yes, we are here mentoring and guiding through these types of communications. You are the ones you have been waiting for.

You are the ones who will bring this whole process together. It is you who will be giving the answers to the questions.

We are not saying to bombard them. We are not saying go door to door or anything if this nature. We do not want you to provide a mission. This is a journey. You are on this journey. You are near completing this part of the journey. It is not the end. It is never going to be the end. This is the end of the beginning or the beginning of the end. However you wish to look at it.

But the time is now. Look at this month, this September. Look at September 28th and at this photon energy coming in that is supposed to be at its highest level ever. And yes, that is true. It is going to be. Can we say that all of you are going to Ascend in that moment and go off in your Rainbow Bodies and cross the Rainbow Bridge to get back to your higher selves? No. We say that is not necessarily going to happen. It may happen for a few but there is still much of those who are still awakening, too much work that is still ahead.

And yes, those of you who have been sitting back and thinking that you are going to be relieved or delivered or thinking that the Rapture is going to come or any of these things, no, that is not the way it is working. It is working with you. You have to be the ones to make this happen.

So, on the day that this goes through, those of you who are listening to this call and are resonating with these words, you will feel the energy the most. But there will be many across the planet that will also be feeling this energy as well. There will be those holding arms and looking for a battle but will turn to one another and say, "Why. Why are we doing this? There is no reason to continue on like this! Why would I want to harm my brother and my sister?" And they will begin to realize, not the unification that you have, but they will begin to realize a connection that everyone is a brother, everyone is a sister. I can tell you now that time is coming. That moment is nearly here.

When you feel these energies move through you, yes, on the 28th, may be a few days before, may be a few days after, maybe a week later, we are not going to say exactly because everybody will resonate to these energies differently. So, you, yourselves, we can tell you to prepare.

Prepare for yourself. Do you need to prepare for safety for each other as far as stockpiling weapons and these types of things? NO! Certainly not. That is the old paradigm and that will not work in the New Age that is coming upon you. That will not work in the new vibrations that are here now and will be exceeding the vibrations you are feeling now by a tremendous amount.

So we tell you again now, be ready. Those times are here. You are ready to cross the finish line. There is no turning back at this point. Why would anyone want to turn back? We know you don't. We know that you came here to finish this race, to finish this journey. You are all working together with us and we are working together with you. And together, my brothers, my sisters and my friends we are going to make this happen. It is a joint effort, a unified effort. We will come together in oneness.

Archangel Michael has been speaking of peace. We will come together in peace. The entire planet will come together in peace. It is destined. It cannot be stopped.

There are those of the Cabal, the Dark Forces who are still working at it. They are fighting tooth and nail to hold on to their life that they have created. They realize now that they are at their end. They are fully realizing that they cannot hold on much longer. Yet they still proceed. They still continue to be arrogant and think that they can overcome heaven. How could anyone possible do that?

So, that is not going to happen. There is not going to be any nuclear war. There is not going to be any major pandemic across the planet. There is not going to be any culling of the populations that many of the sources have been saying. That is not going to happen. We have not worked as hard with all of you for many decades, many hundreds of years; many thousands of years to let it all go away in a puff of smoke. That will never happen.

So, I tell you now, all of you listening to this call heed my words, this is it! This is the end or the beginning. You decide. It is coming to the crescendo, a culmination and it will be very, very shortly.

That is my message, as Sananda. I will be with you many times in the future. There will be times when we will be joining hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder, sitting across the table from one another, breaking bread and yes, even wine. The celebration has been prepared and it is waiting for you to sit at the tables!

All of my peace and love be with you.

“OWS”

“OWS” back with you again. We certainly hope you like this message. We certainly did. It was very powerful, no? And there is so much more coming. You have no idea yet! Sananda touched on just a little bit. There is so much coming that will be revealed in the times ahead. Get ready! Good times are ahead people. Are we ready to take questions here? Is Ashira standing by? Yes.

Question: Sananda mentioned crossing the finish line and then also talked about coming back to help others. Can you please verify that?

“OWS”: Yes. As you are coming to the finish line you will feel somewhat completed, that the journey has come to an end. But lo and behold you are going to have memories return and you will be reminded what this is all about and how it is to be of service. So, when that kicks in you will find yourself turning back around to help those who are straggling a little bit.

That is not to mean that you would have to do it all again. We would not say that to you because we would not do it. This is to assure you that the process here is all it is meant to be. We will share that you may cross that finish line and decide that you want a little bit of rest and relaxation. Certainly that will be ok! And where can you spend your R &R? How about on a ship? How about in Inner Earth, Hollow Earth, in Telos? How about any of those places? How about portions of the world here that you have never been too? You see all of this is ahead for you.

Now that does not mean that on September 28th all of this is going to change. We hope you understand this. It may take a little longer than that but it is the crescendo, as Sananda has said. It is the coming of this Wave. It is the energy that is going to move through you. It will create a shift, a shift in consciousness across the entire planet. A shift of love that is coming and all will feel this shift of love in one point or another or in one degree or another. You are all going to experience this. Does this answer your question?

Question: Will we have all the information we need before we ascend or after? Will we have light chambers to help us heal our bodies?

Yes. We are turning this over to “Ashira.”

“Ashira”: Greetings today. We are glad you have joined us. Everything that you will need to know will be yours in the Shift of Consciousness. Your mentors will arrive to share with you what you need to know. You will have them there as you begin to make decisions about what you want to have in your life during your R&R. You will have the opportunity to become the people you have always wanted to be in health, in service and to be able to assist people in ways you cannot really fathom now but that will become evident to you as you continue to move through this “Shift”. Does that make sense to you, Lori?

Question: Will I be rid of the sciatic bothering me now before I ascend?

You will be rid of that, using your language. As you move forward toward the finish line, we see you moving without pain. Part of this is the shift that is taking place in your body. This is part of the aligning of the new chakras and the new DNA that is coming on. As a Lighworker you are experiencing these things deeply. They will be relieved as you move into your future that is not that far away.

Question: My husband has double vision. Will that be cleared up too?

This is another symptom that people are experiencing. It is part of the opening of the chakras in the head. It will be removed as he completes his race. Give him the message that he can see clearly and as his earthly eyes change to absorb the frequencies and new vision, he will have clarity. Bless you, ma'm.

Question: I have been seeing a lot of numbers in my head. Is that for everybody?

“OWS”: Many people are experiencing these types of things, these sequences. Mathematical sequences, formulary sequences. Many people across the planet have been experiencing these types of thing. Is everyone experiencing those? No, it is only for those in the awakening process for the most part. But even those who are seeing these numbers may not be seeing them in a way that puts any qualification to it at all. No concern here.

But it is you that sees. Especially those of 11-11, 12-12, 555, those of you who are experiencing this, it has been a very long time now and it is increasing as the “Shift” is developing here. You will have more of synchronicities happening here. For those listening here, we will say that the synchronicities are already increasing.

Question: How do you describe synchronicities, “OWS”?

“OWS”: Many things are happening for instance, the phone you have ringing in your head before it actually rings. Things you used to call E.S.P. or psychic development. All of these things are the “Gifts of Spirit” that are returning to you. That is to say that it was never lost, you just have to remember it. And remember it you shall. There is no way you cannot do that.

Question: How can we get our “Quantum Love” meetings up and running by the “Shift” and can Sananda answer this?

We wish to share here that “Sananda” has left the building. We are here to assist in any way that we can. “Ashira” would you like to start with this question?

“Ashira” : Yes. I will begin with this question.

So, with intent that you have set for “Quantum Love” attracts those of like mind to your group. What would you look for on the 28th or whatever day this occurs giving lee-way either way, see that those in battles around the world drop their weapons. See that peace that is in your heart for the world, is already present. See that grid that is around the planet fill with light and see it as it charges around the planet a note that it takes a stop at various places to bolster those of similar belief systems to build them up higher. See that this frequency that comes to the planet spreads light and love around the planet. See that it brings peace and harmony to all aspects of the planet.

These are things you can imagine, you can envision, you can see and know that they are changing the world.

“OWS”: We would add here that groups are formed all over the planet. Many are forming now. Many have been going for some time. This “Meet-Up” group is putting together many groups for this type of interest. This is how this group got started.

You are welcoming people into your group and are sharing and this is all wonderful. And we must say that the contraptions you all use to speak and to communicate with is going to go away! People, you are going to have telepathy. Won't that be wonderful! You will be able to communicate with people across the planet, across the solar system, across the galaxy. Won't that be wonderful?

Not only that but you will be able to travel like that as well. We are not saying that you will be doing any of that on October 1st. You will not be able to fly away but it is coming and you will be experiencing this in most of your lifetimes.

Question: Should these new children be allowed to come to meetings?

It is very important to have the young ones present at your meetings. They are not bogged down yet as you are. They are more a sponge. They can be totally open and absorb everything. They are going to be the catalysts after the “Shift”. They are going to be the ones who push it even more forward.

Many of those in the audience are “Baby Boomers” and you have pushed the world forward in America and you continue to do so. But it is the young ones coming in that are going to be the continuing catalysts that are going to form the “New Age” here.

Question: (This first part is paraphrased) First, I want to thank all of you for your guidance and assistance. I am curious about the masculine and feminine. Also I am curious about that programming that is holding us back and how to “feel” abundance?

Before we turn this over to “Ashira” we want to thank you. For without your participation, this would not be taking place. Thank you! We turn this over to “Ashira”.

“Ashira”: We may need to ask questions again about your questions, however, let us begin.

In blending the masculine and feminine energies is something that is occurring on the planet. And as we have shared previously; the love of power is now overtaken by the power of love. This is something that is being done at the conscious level because it has been depleted by for such a long time. The demoralization of women, the over powerment of women, taking away the contributions that the feminine has brought into this world. Giving to the masculine power to take away of the feminine energy that has been in slender balance for thousands of years.

So, as this energy is shifting, love is considered more of a feminine energy. This is the Goddess Energy. This session today will end with a session from “Divine Mother” who will be touching on these things.

You are doing a great job in this area. What might we say? You could utilize more self-forgiveness. Every time it comes up for you to change, say “Thank you. I see that. I change that now.”

And all things that have kept you enslaved on this planet, say the money aspect, this is being changed as well. As you move away from the programming that money is needed to survive, you will see that the energy of money is in gifting. As this “Shift” moves you along, you will see how money is changed with the advent of the new dimension. The “New Earth” that you are building. Does that answer your questions?

Question: To disconnect from the grips of the past, I am now disconnecting? What do we do when we are covered over with fallability?

This is art of the 3D experience you are still in. Be kind to yourself. Be loving to yourself. The old 3D experiences sometimes overwhelm a person. And you in your good self will say, “That is a bad thought. That is a bad action.” That is judgment and we invite you to no longer have judgments about these types of things.

As you move forward on the path your energy levels will attract much less of these type of experiences. You will have less and less of these thoughts or actions in your own being. So catching yourself is a good way to move forward. Catch yourself, forgive yourself, and utilize any of the affirmations you stated earlier.

This is how you continue to move. You allow yourself to be a 3D human in your experience and you strive moment to moment every day to continue to raise your frequency. Be clear on what is true and what is not true for the divinity of your being. Does that answer your question?

“One Who Serves” did you have any information for this one?

“No, you handled it very well”, my dear sister.

Question: Are we leaving the body or are we anchoring to the Divine in our bodies?

“OWS”: Yes. We can answer this question. You are going to take the body with you. In the past, when those of us who went through it, those of us considered “Ascended Masters” although we do not like that term, we are not much more “Masters” than you are. We have mastered our body. We have mastered the control of our emotions and this type of thing that you are all moving toward.

But you, yourselves, have already been there before. You have all been Master’s before. When you are on your calls with “Zorra” he calls you, Masters, does he not? You are all Masters.

So, it is not that you are going to leave the body in the old way when you go through the death process and you ascend in the old way. That is not going to happen. What would happen on the planet if they all knew that they were going to ascend but they had to die to do it? Who would like that? That would not be a very fun thing, would it?

So, it was decided in many different council meetings and much discussion, that this is the process we would go through. This is why we are assisting you in helping to allow the process to happen. You are not going to leave the Earth. You are not going to go up on some planet somewhere. You are not going off to “Never Never Land” or anything of this nature.

You are going to ascend with your physical body but it is not the physical body as you know it now. It will be changed. There is a transition that is happening with the body. Even as we speak now it is happening. Some more than others but you are moving from a carbon-based structure to a crystalline-based structure. All of this is happening and cannot be stopped.

So, it is an entire shift of consciousness on the planet. After you have crossed the finish line, as “Sananda” said, you will be in a higher vibrational state. In that state there are no diseases, no ills, no dying. None of these things can happen there.

So, be of good cheer people. It is coming and you are going to have a grand time!

Does that answer your questions?

Question: I witnessed a flash this morning. Another person experienced energy around her midsection and then heard, “Re-Set”. Can you tell us some more about this experience?

“Ashira”: Yes. I will start here. As many people are experiencing the dropping of the veil more people are experiencing the energy impacts upon the planet and are visual to those who are attuned. You are attuned, awakened and open to experiencing the opening of the veil. Look at your environment and see with eyes that are not your 3D vision. See what the view holds.

And the word that your friend heard is what is coming on now with each person's body. In the chakra structure there is reformation, there is healing, there is re-set, an expansion going on and this is what you were experiencing this morning. Does that make sense?

“OWS”: We would add this is common when the Kundalini Energy is rising and just as those who are coming up to the Ascension there are flashes of energy that do occur. We are not saying that you will be ascending tomorrow. We are not saying that. So, go with the flow here. That is one of our favorite sayings here, go with the flow.

Question: When you hold a cat you can here at purr. I have been feeling like this for about two weeks. Is this something that others are experiencing too?

“OWS”: I am going to pass this to Ashira. It has an animal being discussed and that is more your area.

“Ashira” : I am that one! So, you are sharing with us that the sound you feel in your body as it steps up in energy is much like a cat purring. Is that accurate?

Yes. Well many of those in this room were discussing the energies in their bodies and what is happening for them, before this part of the day began. We would expect that there are many around the planet who are feeling the uptuning of the chakra energies as well. Hearing it as a purring of the cat is a good description for you.

This is a time where many are experiencing the upsurge of the energy in the body. It will be interesting to hear about other's experiences in this area of their development.

Question: Do you believe that NESARA will come in before the “Wave”?

“OWS”: What we can say here is that NESARA will be a GESARA, a global treatment for the financial markets. As this shift comes through there will be a change in consciousness. This shift will move many who were not in tune with this. They will now say, it is time. This is not only for GESARA, it is for galactic disclosure too. All of this is coming to an end. Disclosure and all of the truths.

Was it not said a long time ago, the truth shall set you free? This is that moment in time that you have been preparing for. For all the truth to come out. The truth to be revealed. Even the truth about Atlantis and Lemuria, all will come back to the knowing of mankind. This is all going to be a part of this.

Yes, this is all part of that entire process. When you have moved along the process you will find yourselves in various situations. You will find yourselves in bringing healing to your physical bodies, healing to your mental bodies, all of these things are going to be. Some of you will find yourselves in crystal chambers. Some will find themselves on ships. You will have mentors at various levels. All of this will be assisting you to go through this process.

You will not be alone. Just as we said that you were not going to fly off, think about how you teach a child to walk, you help them on their way. You will learn how to fly from someone who knows how to do it. OK?

Question: I have a female Cardinal desperately trying to get in here. What can you share about this dear one “Ashira”: It is pleasure to visit with you today. This one is trying to get you a message but you do not hear her. If you could be outside for a period of time, she would be able to deliver this message to you. It is a message of hope, of shifting and she is already in the process of doing this herself. This is a concern that she has for you. You do not need to worry about her. Take a cup of tea or coffee outside and wait for her. She will come near you and open both of yourselves for the conversation with her. This is a good time to communicate with this one. You are a natural telepath in this way. You may not always recognize the voices from other creatures that are inside your head. She is here to share her gift as it is part of the opening for your Ascension.

It is only being blocked by your heart. It is not a block in your communications with creatures. She only wants you to join her outside so that she can most effectively give you her wisdom. Thank you for your attendance.

Question: A couple of months before 9-11 I went up into a higher consciousness. Is that what we will experience for the “Shift”?

“OWS”: Everybody will experience the change differently. It is not like there is going to be a unitary experience across the planet. You will experience it at whatever level you are at in the moment. And in those moments, it is a “Wave” that continues to come on and on and on. Think of a Tsunami, it comes on shore and then continues to flow until it covers everything in its path.

That is what the “Wave” shall do. It is a consciousness energy that is going to sweep across the planet. It will affect many different people in many different ways. Depending on how you are in your heart at the moment will determine how you will be affected by this. It will exacerbate anything you have been feeling. If it is fear, it will exacerbate the fear. All of the sources have been saying to not let fear overcome you. Control your thoughts as much as possible. To let go of all the various attachments that are holding you back. This is what you need to do to prepare for all of this.

As this comes keep yourself in a peaceful, calm state as much as possible. This will assist greatly.

Question: People I have been close to seem to be going away. Is that part of what is happening?

“Ashira”: This has been happening to many people in their lives. It may be in the need to change homes. It may be in the need to change job. It may be in the need to change the people that surround them. And what is interesting is that you have working on yourself and raising your vibration and you have dropped people on your pathway without really even remembering them being there. This has been a way that you have been moved along your pathway. Those things that no longer serve you, are removed from you. They are dropped from you.

Think of this in a global way. Think of the Lightworkers who have been called together and as they have come together, other parts of their lives are dropped away. This is a good sign. You are doing the work you came to do. Do not worry. You are accumulating other friends, other support systems as you move forward. Does that make sense dear one?

Question: I was in Hot Springs, AR today and I found a wonderful plate with a dragon on it.

“OWS”: This goes along with the synchronization that is going on here plus the becoming aware of those who are a part of you but you have not gotten to know them yet. This is part of the message earlier about losing the familiars in your life.

The dragon that has come on is a symbol of ancients, ancient understanding, ancient communications. There were certainly dragons here and there are certainly dragons now. You have heard of dragons in Hollow Earth, various places there. You may have heard of dragons on other planets being in various states of beings. This is certainly true.

So, this is a pre-cursor for you telling you that you have other beings coming into your life. They will not seem like they do in your human experience directly. So, this is preparing you in some ways.

Question: What can we say about the 28th of September to our children?

“OWS”: You will find what it is you are looking for. Those on the call are looking for some good times, freedom and things of this nature, from the old programming. You can look at the September 28th like your September 21, 2012, when you were getting ready to fly off into heaven and all of that. Thinking that you would go to bed that night and wake up in the New World. Don't think the 28th is it. It is not necessarily going to be it but it is going to be something!

Do you wish to add here, “Ashira”. No thank you.

Question: I also experienced wing creatures. A bat and a swallow. Two years ago some of my family members went away. What should I do?

“Ashira”: Very well. We appreciate the work you are doing. What can you do? Forgive them on all levels. For if we love someone and hold on to them closely, it becomes hard for that relationship to grow. If you release those you love, their response to you will be more positive and first, you are allowed to love them from a distance. This is a gift. They are exactly on the path they are meant to be on. They are on the Divine Path they came in to live and it will bring you greater satisfaction than any other thing you can do at this time. We bless you.

“OWS” We have 2 things we wish to say here and then we must release this channel. First, we would like to do this again after the 28th of September maybe the next Sunday or the week after, your choice. That is number one.

Number two is another one of our group. He is breaking down the door here. He is another one of our collective who wants to come in and say a little something. Here he is!

One Who Serves #2

Greetings to you. I am number two or maybe number six. I do not know. We kind of lose track sometimes. I am here to feel the great energy that is here and they knew this. So, whenever there is a stage, I am here. I am the standup comedian here.

Anyway, I come just to share with you briefly about the excitement we are all feeling. All of this. All of the Ascended Realm. All of the Galactics. All of those from Inner Earth and Hollow Earth. All over. We are all so excited. We are not excited for us though. Well, a little bit I guess we can say. We are excited for you because it is coming to a close.

Your journey as Sananda has said, has been a wonderful journey. And you can say that sure we can have this opinion where we are but it is not so great for us sometimes. But, you must understand that we were there with you many times.

We have been with you in many situations. You even know some of us. And when the time comes, and it is coming very shortly, we are going to reveal who we are, those in the “One Who Serves”. There are also many councils and they are occurring in many aspects and they are not as individuals either. But they will be sharing who they are and we will be sharing our identities. You will understand that you experienced many different situations with all of us before.

Thank you for this experience with all of you. We must release channel now

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the One.

“Ashira”

Thank you so much for the time today. We are blessed by the opportunities to share with people from around the world. The Divine Mother has entered the room and would like to address this audience on the subject of love.

“Divine Mother”

Greetings. It is my pleasure to be joining you this day. The light from this room reaches out into the world and covers the world with love, with light, with openness, openness of the heart and spirit.

We have never left you alone. And if you feel alone, become quiet and you will feel us upon your cheek. You can feel us upon your shoulders. For all of us are encircling each and every person on the planet at this time. Each and every member on the planet is meeting with their mentors in dream states. Each and every member of the planet is visiting light chambers or being visited by medical teams.

You are not alone. You are not alone. We love you and we remind you that the greatest gift you can give yourself at this time, is love. As you inhale it, as you breathe it, as you feel it that which you give out returns in greater fold.

This is a time to share this love upon the planet with others. With those who may not be of the same mindset give them love, send them love. This is something you can do as a spiritual being. There is no time and no distance. Blessings to each of you. All my love.
