SANANDA (Channeled by James McConnell)

(...Transcript from during Lunar Eclipse meditation today with Sananda

... Now look to the central sun of the universe. And now see a brilliant white light coming from the universal central sun, coming out and going through all of the central suns of all of the galaxies. Know that each galaxy has a central sun that all of the solar systems revolve around. And each solar system has a central sun as well. See all of these galaxy central suns and the solar systems central suns all connecting in this white light, brilliant white light shooting through all of the galaxies' central suns. And then finally to the central sun of our galaxy, and Pleiadean constellation central sun called "Aldebaran." The energy, this white light shooting from the central sun of the galaxy through the Pleiadean stargate and the Syrian stargate, then into our solar system through our central sun of this solar system, through all of the ships that are out here, connecting all the heavenly bodies, and then finally shooting down to the earth. This brilliant white light that has now picked up the energy from all of the galaxies and solar systems, and all of the galactic ships, and now comes to the earth. It comes as this brilliant white light.

The brilliant white light, now, has taken on so many different colors, colors of the rainbow and beyond. As a wave of energy, now, it sweeps across the planet. Every life form on the planet is connecting to this wave of energy and is transformed in the moment as this wave comes across (start of flowing water sounds at [7:15], ends at "something that is foreign to you. ") sweeping across the entire planet as a tsunami would sweep across the land.

But unlike a tsunami, this wave continues on and on and on and on, gaining momentum. Rather than losing momentum, it gains momentum as it moves across the planet and through all life forms, whether human, animal, or plant, or mineral—all with consciousness. And consciousness spreading. But not the consciousness that you have always known here on the planet in all of your lifetimes. But the consciousness of the universal sun, the universal central sun of all things—source of this entire universe, and that energy, although largely stepped down, has entered all life forms here on the planet. Feel it as it even moves into your physical body and into your consciousness, raising your consciousness, raising those that are around you: family, friends, all are raised by this consciousness as it moves across. Know that as this wave of energy, this wave of light, spreads across the planet, it moves into any areas still that are yet of darkness, and sweeps away that darkness, illuminating that darkness. So that darkness is no more here on this planet ever again, and darkness is no more in this solar system or the galaxy, but all darkness is eliminated by this brilliant white light, this wave of light.

[9.44] Consciousness now is like you have never known it before. For in this moment, you are that higher consciousness. You are the light. You are the way, the truth, and the life, or the light.

This, my friends, is the Christ Consciousness. This is the return of the Christ, that was foretold for so long. This is the Second Coming. Feel it in you. You are the Second Coming.

Know that from this moment forward, all darkness is dissipated. Only the light remains. The light of true love. The light of the One Consciousness, the source of all things.

Now if you would allow yourselves to begin to drift back from wherever you find yourselves, back into your Mercaba if you left it or if you never left it, come back now, back down toward the earth, floating back down, back toward your physical body, and merge your Mercaba back into your physical form.

Feel the light body all around you, and feel the energy of that white light, that brilliant white light, source of all creation, coming back into your body now, bringing a healing energy as it comes in, everything in your body being as One. One with the Source. One with the One Consciousness. And you, now, are the One.

SANANDA (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am Sananda. I am with you now at this time, in this place, in this moment.

This moment that has taken on a new life of its own. Because you are that new life. Each and every one of you are becoming more and more each and every day, becoming more of who you are, what you came here to do.

Your missions are opening up in front of you now. And if they haven't as of yet, know that they shall. For nothing now can hold back the light.

And you, each one of you, of the 144,000 and beyond—the Light-bearers, -sharers, Light-workers, and -warriors—all of you carry this light. You're anchoring this light into the planet, holding it, sharing it, sending it, being it.

Know that as these energies continue to come in--and they are coming in as waves of energy now— and the wave of energy that is coming with this lunar eclipse is like nothing you have ever felt yet.

But most of you who have been acclimating to these energies for some time will not feel it as something that is foreign to you. It will come into you, and you will feel it, but you will sense something as you gaze upon that lunar eclipse this evening or tomorrow, depending on your time zone. As you gaze upon it, you will feel yourself as ONE with it. But not as just one with the moon, or the sun, or the earth, but ONE with ALL THAT IS. One with the central sun of the universe itself.

So, gaze into the moon and see all the way to that central sun, first of the galaxy, then all the other galaxies, and then the universe itself, and know that all is connecting in that moment, and that these waves of energy that are coming to the planet and continuing to come, continue to bring this higher consciousness to all of mankind so that ALL of mankind, the collective of man, will continue to rise up, rise up against whatever darkness is still left, and say no more--no more--no more will we allow for this darkness to hold us. No more will we allow fear to entrap us.

We are now DONE with all of this. For it is only the light that shines now upon all of us. Know this as you gaze at this lunar eclipse and you find yourself as ONE with it.

I am Sananda, and this is my message for you this day. And I release now to another who would share with you.

All my peace and love be with all of you.

May the Christ Consciousness, the Second Coming, continue to be within ALL of you.

KaRa (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am KaRa.

I come again at this time to bring what might be considered 'Part 2' of my message, my continuing message.

Because I had asked that I be allowed to speak to this group and to all those who would resonate to these words, and was given permission to do so. For you must understand that this group is well protected, and is not allowed for any outside interference to break through, through this one that I speak through now. Only the light is allowed to come through. And I bring this light to all of you. I bring it to you as a Pleiadean emissary from the great councils. But not only the Pleiadean councils, but the many councils of light, and from the many different civilizations that are here now and working toward bringing the light to this planet.

And I share with you now, as KaRa, that those of you in this group, and again those who would resonate to these words, are being prepared, prepared to be a part, not only of the many changes that are coming to this planet, but be a part of first contact with those of us. We are preparing the way for all of you. But it is because of what you have all been doing, intending, working toward, and acclimating to the energies. Because you cannot come aboard our ships without first being acclimated to these energies. Your One Who Serves has said many times: we cannot come down to you: you must rise to us.

And rising you have been doing! And rising you continue to do. Rising into the high vibrations, into higher dimensional frequencies where you can then meet us, and we can meet you. And we are preparing the way now for that. No, I cannot give you a timeframe for this. But I can say it is coming.

The way is being prepared for those of you to be a part of what has been called “the secret wave.” If you would read that which this one, James, read some time ago, called “Prepare for the Landings,” you will understand what this secret wave is, and how it is the precursor of the waves to come after this, the waves of contact. We are here to make contact with you. We are here to bring you aboard our ships. That is what this group is being prepared for. Only for those of you, though, who would ask for it, who would want it. Your one, Cobra, has spoken of this as an emissary of ours. He spoke of preparing a place in your properties where a ship could land, or a place outside of where you live where you could be at that moment when a ship lands. Or certainly, be able to be beamed up when the time is right, when the energies are right for you to be able to do so.

And know that as these waves of energy continue to come, you are rising up each and every moment into the higher vibrations where you can then meet us, and we meet you. But understand that the term “meet” is not quite relevant here because we know many of you, as you know many of us already. The recognition will be there. It is not only us, the Pleiadeans, who are preparing this, but the Cereans, the Andromedans, and others who are preparing the way for this.

Eventually, there will not only be first contact, there will be full contact, and full disclosure. Then, we will be able to be in your skies, landing on your airstrips: you will be coming aboard our ships and traveling to the stars! Just as you were meant to do.

I am KaRa, and I will be with you often now from this point forward. For the connection has been re-established between us, and will continue on for some time yet to come.

All of my peace, love, and all that I AM be with all of you.

One Who Serves (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum, hum, hum. Greetings to you.

One Who Serves here with you now. You can unmute your phones. We do not have a necessary message here this week, but we are ready for your questions if you have any. Otherwise, we will release channel and that will be the end of this particular time message.

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: Greetings, One Who Serves. Why are these remaining toplet bombs so hard to find, and could you give us an update on their plan of removal, and also on the elimination of the AI threat to this planet?

OWS: First of all, it is not that they are hard to find. They know where they are. They, being the Alliance, knows where they are. But the difficulty is in removing them. And that is something that is continually in the works and will continue to be so. But not for much longer, because as we are finding it, the times that are upon you now are bringing about the changes that are necessary so that these can be rendered completely useless, we will say. So there is no need to be concerned about that. Yes, it is true that these must be removed from the consciousness of man here, and to enable The Event to occur, so that is correct. But it is coming. So, no need to be concerned about that.

As to your second part of question, that AI: the AI, "artificial intelligence," as you understand it, has been taken over by the forces of light, and those of the forces of darkness no longer hold sway with that AI influence any longer.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: One Who Serves, how are you today? Blessings.

OWS: We are always wonderful, because we are always in the moment.

Guest: I know you are, and I love you. Okay.

Before I ask my question, let me thank KaRa again for coming in. I felt such a deep resonance, I was brought to tears, and I had such a longing to be with my galactic family, and just much gratitude for her and for her love that she is showing this family, and care, and what we are about to experience. Thank you very much. Blessings to her.

I have to set it up before I ask the question. I have two major questions.

The first one: You, the collective, and Shoshanna, have really guided me in standing in my own power, and I am very clear-minded and in that power. I am out here in the desert, and there was a large group gathering. I am transmitting what went down during a meditative session at 12 Noon a couple days ago. There were lovely instruments being played, and I was a holy place, a holy time. I know you are seeing it in my mind's eye. I am transmitting it to you, so you will know.

Evil came into that site and sat exactly next to me. Pure evil. It was so dark that a person looked at the evil within, they rolled their eyes, and this person said, "If you look at me again this way, I will rip your eyes out." And at that moment there was a chill in the air. I got up off my chair and I moved away from the darkness.

I went back and began to protect the group. First, I protected myself in the blue light of Archangel Michael. I called in Archangel Michael. I began to wrap this entity in light. I sent the entity pink light from Mother Mary and Magdalene. Then I wrapped it in the Violet Flame. I contacted Mother Sophie God and talked to her, and surrounded that entity in God's white light and then welded in then walled it in, protecting the people that were there.

The minute I walled it in and wrapped that white light, the evil entity left and walked out through the people. A few of the Lightworkers knew what was going on. Most of them were unaware.

I want to know from you: was that an entity within the person, or was it a shape-shifter type?

OWS: Please repeat that last question, here?

Guest: Okay, was that dark evil person, was it an entity within that person, or was it an actual shapeshifter evil type of entity that was there to break up the sanctity of the holy union of those people? What was that entity?

OWS: What we can tell you is that whenever these types of gatherings occur where those of the light gather and they share love and higher consciousness, there are always those forces that attempt to break into that and attempt to break it apart, you might say. This is an indication of so. It was not that it was necessarily embedded within this one there, but it took over, you might say, temporarily, briefly.

And you in your understanding of working with the light and working with Archangel Michael and the forces that were needed were able to dissipate and dispel this level of darkness.

Now you must understand that this particular entity that entered here is familiar with you. Now it did not come directly for you, but it is familiar with you, and it has attempted before to interfere in your affairs. You understand what we speak of, here. You felt a strong connection to this one that came in because you have dealt with it before. Not only in this lifetime, but in previous lifetimes as well. And we think you know of which lifetimes we are speaking of, and there are even more than that as to your past life experiences that you have had and who you were at various times, so that these forces of darkness would attempt to hold you back from your missions. And we say “missions,” here, because it is in the plural, here.

Shoshanna, do you have anything to add?

Shoshanna (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell): Yes. Shoshanna wishes to share with you, Brother, is this appropriate at this time?

Guest: Oh yes, Shoshanna, thank you. Sure.

Shoshanna: We find something very interesting, here, and we must share this with you so that you can acknowledge how you have learned to progress with your own power. This one, this entity, has many forms. It may embed itself in a human, it may show up on its own, it has tremendous power.

But what you have acknowledged in yourself is the ability to overcome and to, as you call it, “wall” this entity with light, and this entity is serving you in that capacity by showing you that you have the power to overcome it. This is a tremendous gift. You must acknowledge the gift that this entity has shown you, that you have become so powerful that this cannot disturb your peace and the peace of others.

This is your gift to them, and this entity worked in unison with you to show you your great power. Do you understand this?

Guest: Yes I do. And I did not send anything negative to that entity, I sent only love.

OWS: And that is appropriate for this type of situation. Only love with conquer here.

Shoshanna: And as you said, and as you acknowledged that you stand in your power, as we acknowledge as all humans acknowledge that they stand in their power, they will be tested in that resolve, and the test is to show you that you are powerful. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Very good. Do we have further questions, here?

Guest: Hello One Who Serves. Hello Shoshanna.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: I did the meditation today in Glastonbury. It is funny that my dear Brother experienced that, but I don't ever experience any negative. In fact, it was so beautiful, so wonderful the experience today, I felt nothing but love around me. I just wanted from your perspective, how did it look from your perspective, especially where the sacred site was. I mean I could kind of see the light going into the crystalline grid there at St. Mary's Chapel. What did it look like from your perspective? And I know for a fact there were some ships up there, but I haven't asked who is was and who was there, I wonder if you can help out with that. I love you, and thank you.

OWS: We can tell you, because you did not feel any darkness come into your circle of energy there, because your circle of energy was too powerful, and they would not have been able to penetrate into that level of consciousness, that level of vibration that had been raised at that point.

And you must understand, when many are gathered, "when two or more are gathered in my name, (is what he said) there will I be amongst them." And this is to say that the Christ Consciousness was raised at that level at that moment, and no darkness could dispel or attempt to invade, you might say, into that space of light that was created.

So yes, we are seeing it as you experienced it, but know that this is just a small miniscule portion of what is coming in terms of the light being created this evening as your meditation occurs, tremendously, actually, throughout the entire day.

It is not only this evening, but it is many meditations that are occurring throughout the entire day, here, just as yours here in this group occurred. And much energy, much vibration, much higher consciousness is being raised as a result of this.

Shoshanna, do you have anything to add, here?

Shoshanna: Shoshanna wishes to share with you, Dear Sister.

Guest: Always a pleasure.

Shoshanna: "Always a pleasure..." I wish to share this with you. As you requested that One Who Serves acknowledged their perspective of this event, and I wish to share my perspective of this event.

Guest: Please.

Shoshanna: What occurred, in my perspective, as I view this event, is pure light love. There was nothing but pure love, pure light, in this area which was the Source light, which was all of creation. And you, my dear, must acknowledge your great power to create this light around all that come into your influence. So we thank you and we wish you great love and great light. Namaste.

Guest: Namaste. Thank you so much. That is so beautiful. I felt it too. I felt nothing but love and abundance. An amazing amount of Source light came through. I felt there were many with us there, and especially where we were at St. Mary's Chapel, that sacred place, a feminine energy of the divine feminine in that area. So I am blessed. I didn't feel any darkness. Oh gosh no, I just felt amazing. I just wanted to share that with you all.

But there were some ships. I couldn't see them because I was so entranced with what I was doing. Do any of you know who were there on the ships, who it was?

Shoshanna: They are your family.

Guest: Yeah, I thought so.

Shoshanna: Your family came to share this event with you, and you must in your heart acknowledge them.

Guest: Yeah. Oh, I know. I couldn't see them because I was concentrating, but I felt them. I knew they were there, and I thanked them for their love and their support. And I thank you and I love you so much. One Who Serves I love you all so much, thank you. Many blessings to you. We got this 100%. I love you both.

OWS: This goes out to all now, not only this one who has asked this question. But whenever there are gatherings such as this, whether it be this type that has been spoken of, medication such as this, or your Advances, or whatever it might be, when there are gatherings like this, there are many who are brought to this in curiosity sometimes, in reverence in working with you to help raise the energies, and you have many friends that are available and with you in these moments, many ships, as Shoshanna said, many of your family are there, and all are, what is your saying, pulling for you through this entire endeavor, here. Okay?

Would there be other questions, here?

Guest: Yes, One Who Serves, and Shoshanna. Blessings to you. Today is a very cosmic day with the lunar eclipse and the portals and stargates opening through Ceres and Pleiades through the galactic central sun and the cosmic central suns, and I am feeling like humans, all of us on the planet are stepping up to actually participate in this, and I feel like we are going to go over what we need as far as the grounding necessary for this experience. Is there any way you could talk about that?

OWS: We you can tell you there is both the conscious and the unconscious, or subconscious, you might say, that are involved in this. Just because those that are not aware of these things as you may be aware, they are not awakened yet, does not mean that they will not participate at their level and their consciousness raised as well.

You see, the energies are coming in whether they are aware of them or not. It matters not. So as these energies continue to come in, and they are going to come in very strongly, as Sananda said during this lunar eclipse when this occurs, and many will be affected by this, and many will have what we have called before "alarm clocks going off" for them, and their awakening process will begin as a result of this.

So you must understand that everything is certainly being orchestrated here. And the greater plan is always at work. Know that. It is all in divine timing here that this is occurring.

Anything to add here, Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: My Dear Sister, you have painted a perfect picture of what is occurring, and you know in your heart how accurate the picture is. You must acknowledge that you have the power and understanding and comprehension of this event within your heart. You must acknowledge this, that there is no doubt in your mind that humans everywhere are stepping up.

What is occurring here is the third dimensional consciousness that is so steeped in materialism and darkness in many ways, is stepping up to integrate with the higher energies, with that of the fourth, the fifth, the sixth, the seventh densities that are available to integrate with the consciousness of the third dimension, so that the earth can rise up, so that Gaia, herself, and her occupants can rise up in union and glorification of this great event.

You must understand that humans are multi-dimensional, that what you see in the third-dimension, as you call "asleep," etc., are just a portion of their consciousness. And what you see rising up is the integration of that consciousness with the higher selves with the higher consciousness of each one of these. Is that clear?

Guest: That was beautifully stated, Goddess Sister Shoshanna. Yes, that is absolutely how I feel, and thank you so much for sharing that. It just confirms what I know in my heart. Thank you so much. Blessings.

Shoshanna: Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Wonderful. Are there any further questions, here?

Guest: Yes One Who Serves. I have a question. A while ago I asked a question about my grandmother who was 100 years old and she recently passed, and I was glad that she was finally free of her body. A week later, I belong to another group, and we met, and we had a circle. One lady in the group gave me a message that my grandmother had become one of my guides. Also, later on, we went to the District of Columbia to send love astrally, and we did another thing. Then a negative entity also visited us. We just sent it love. It either was defeated, or it left. I was just wondering, is that a common occurrence for a loved one to become one of your guides. And also, did we do what we set out to do with the Washington Monument, and did the entity just leave, or anything else you could share on that.

OWS: We will answer the second part first, and then we believe Shoshanna would like to speak on the first part. Are we correct on this, Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: Yes.

OWS: Yes. Then the second part is, yes, certainly whenever you call upon the light to dissipate the darkness, it shall be. Because the darkness cannot exist within the light. And even though you may not be aware of it, or think you have power, you do. And when you call the light, it comes. It is there. It is not even so much that it comes, it is already there. All you are doing is just intending it to be there in that moment, and it is. So know that everything that you are doing, you are doing more and more with more and more power, here. So create it, utilize the light, and it will always be there for you.

It is when those times of the entity of darkness comes and you feel like you do not have the power, then certainly call upon Archangel Michael or Sananda, or whoever it might be that works for you, or that you believe works for you. They all work for you, but whoever you resonate to the most, and that will also help to eliminate that darkness from your personal area that you are in at that time. Okay?

Shoshanna, do you want to answer that first question?

Shoshanna: Shoshanna wishes to share with you. It is so good to hear your voice. We have not heard it in a while. Thank you so much for sharing with us.

We would say, as you were speaking about your dear grandmother, she has come into our view and she is wish you, and you feel this. You feel her presence. What you must do now if you wish to create the relationship with her that she would guide you in other areas as she wishes to, and she is standing ready to do this, you must call upon her. You must call upon her. She is so joyous at this moment in time, and so free, and so much love she is sending to you. But as a guide, you must call on her to strengthen her idea and resolve to be a guide with you, as she certainly has the ability, and she certainly wishes to. It is up to you to call upon her and strengthen that relationship. Does this make sense to you, Dear One?

Guest: Yes. I have called her a few times, already. In my meditations I have gotten a different energy, let's say, answering things that I was wondering about, even though not even asking, and I get a message saying, "yes, do this." I think that's her.

Shoshanna: Yes. It is her. It is her. And you have called upon her and she has answered you. You must trust this. You must trust that you can hear this, and you must strengthen that relationship, as she has much to guide you in in this lifetime.

Guest: Thank you, thank you, so much, both of you for this information.

Shoshanna: Namaste, Dear Brother. We send our love to you.

OWS: Very good. Do we have any further questions, here?

Guest: Yes, I have a question. I am honored to ask this question. I have a couple of questions, actually. There are couple of visions that I have had. One was when I was more awake than asleep and just laying down. I saw myself standing in front of like a high school locker that was made of wood. I took a key and I put it in the keyhole and I opened the door, and a bright light came out, and I reached in and grabbed a golden chalice and brought it into my heart, and then a light came from the locker into my heart. Then I got up and started to meditate in my meditation room. What I got was I was actually inside the locker, very secure, with nothing but light around me. So I was just wondering if you would like to comment on that.

OWS: What we can say to you is what we believe you have already considered the possibility of, and that is your connection to that which is the records, here. And the re-recovering of these records. And it was shown as a locker in this case. But it is very much in terms of the opening of this locker, or the opening of this entrance, and you have the key for it. This is what was being shared here in this respect. Do you understand this?

Guest: Yes, I do. I do. Thank you.

OWS: Yes. Certainly when the key was turned and the locker or the entrance was opened, the light would shine forth, and you would feel that light within you, because it would bring you back to those times when you first placed those records there in that opening, we will say, here. Okay?

Guest: That resonates. That resonates.

Can I ask another question? I was in a meditation with four other people. What I had happen was I was on a unicorn. I was riding the unicorn down into tunnels. As we went into the tunnels, there were individuals, people I will call them, working on the tunnels, and I didn't really pay any attention to them. To make a long story short, I landed in front of the big crystal. I looked into the crystal and it was like a little city in there. Then I got off of the unicorn, and then the unicorn completely enveloped me and I was in a black suit with a black cape with a black hat on. And I went into the crystal. Then there was a white flame right there. Then I went into the flame, and I actually turned into light. Then I stepped out of the light. Then I looked over, and one of my other partners I was meditating with, stepped into the flame. Then they stepped out of the flame, into me and my flame rose, and the other three people did the same thing. Then all of a sudden, I got that when we are united, that Mother Mary is our twin flame. Is that accurate?

OWS: Shoshanna, do you wish to share, here?

Shoshanna: Not at this time.

OWS: Very good. Then we will say here that what it appears that you had in this experience, Dear One, is a connection or a beginning understanding, we will say, of what is ascension, here. And you had experience of moving and becoming the light, and that is certainly what the ascension will be like here for those of you.

As to the understanding of the connection of being together and all experiencing the connection with the Mary? The Mary is not the Mary as you understand it, but the mother of all creation. And this is the connection there. When you connect with others, you connect with the ALL. You see?

Guest: Yes, I got it. Thank you so much. Thank you, thank you.

OWS: Yes. Would there be any further questions before we release channel?

Guest: Yes, Dear Brother. I have been substitute teaching inside the Springfield School District, which I think I shared once before, and it is quite a troubled district, I would say. I am a certified teacher as well. But it raised the question in me as to whether I might put some of the prosperity funds toward revamping of some of these really troubled districts. I was just wondering, and I know that at some point there will be no schools, but will it be necessary to make some new schools to get us from point A to point B, and would we be able to create some new working situations inside the system, or would we need to step out of the system and just start all over from square one, like with maybe charter schools, or something like that. Do you have anything to say on this?

OWS: The system as you know it now will not be. The educational system will move certainly, quite quickly as we find it, through a transition, here, and it will move to note being taught by those teachers, those ones who are teaching the rhetoric, the curriculum. There will not be the curriculum like that anymore. It will be geared toward the individual. This has been attempted in times past, as we find it, but not successful in terms of continuation in that respect, because it was always the curriculum, or it was always the State, or the Federal Government that came back into the picture and took over, here. And the individualization was not allowed to continue. But that will certainly change, because it will be the individual working with the village, you might say in terms of all of the community will help to raise the child. You see?

Guest: So, perhaps there won't even need to be schools? That's not even something that maybe needs to be dealt with?

OWS: It will be part of the transition, as we are speaking of. It will not go from, as the James says, zero to sixty in two seconds, but it will transition over a short period of time to your schools as you know it, both lower education, higher education, will all be changed, all be shifted through this transition.

Guest: Okay. I was just trying to figure out if I am led to be part of that shift in creating something new.

OWS: If you believe that you are, if you feel like you are in that position, then that is your guidance, and you need to continue to follow it.

Shoshanna: Shoshanna wishes to share.

OWS: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: My Dear Sister, you are making a difference right now in every moment that you spend with your heart so open and your love so readily available to those that do not feel love at this time. You are making the difference. It is not about what is to come, it is what is now. What is now for us, which creates the future for us? So, as you give your time, your love, your understanding, your compassion, to those children who have been forgotten, that do not have what others have, you are changing the system right now. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Very good.

Guest: Thank you. I appreciate that. Okay, great. Thank you.

OWS: Any further questions?

Guest: Yes. I have had two dreams right in a row. Outside my bedroom there is a communication device set up. It is almost on my neighbor's property. The first time I saw it, I thought what is that? I saw it by myself. It is about 20 feet high, silver at the top. The second time my neighbor saw it, and he said, "Wow, what is that?" I said I thought it was something to do with the internet. I have never seen anything like it. Now I am thinking that my communication is getting stronger and powering up. He goes, "maybe we can paint it." I said, "No, I want the light to shine on it." I am wondering what you see in that dream.

OWS: What we can see in this dream, as from our point of view, here, we are seeing that it is a higher technology connection that is coming for the planet in terms of moving toward your more technological devices that are going to be released, and this is showing you that communication will change and shift over a period of time, and this is happening within your neighborhood as you are seeing it, because this is happening right there with you now. That is what we are perceiving here. Anything from you, Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: I have one thing, my Dear Sister, to share with you. The idea that your neighbor wished to paint over this device tells me of your experience with others that do not wish to communicate with you. You wish to be heard. You wish to be listened to, you wish to communicate with all. You wish to share with all. And this device is a reflection of your own mental construct of how you wish to communicate, how you wish to spread the word. And you have found in many cases that this is blocked. This is painted over. But you must continue your mission within your heart to share with all, to love all, to communicate with all, to rise up and allow others to meet you where you are and allow you to meet others where they are, and that is true communication. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: We are ready to release channel, here, now.

As we do so, we just simply want to reiterate what was given by Sananda and also KaRa, and that these communications will continue in terms of preparing this group and those that resonate to these words and these messages that you are being prepared for a great many missions, here, and many of those missions do revolve around the coming disclosure in terms of the galactic disclosure and other types of disclosures, here. That is all we can say on this, here, how, and we release channel.

Shoshanna can also end the message if she wishes. Shanti. Peace be one with you.

Shoshanna: Shoshanna wishes to share with all. Keep your heart open. Keep your love shining. Keep your light shining, as this will dispel all darkness. This will rise all humanity up. Keep your light on. Namaste
