"Lady Nada"

I am "Lady Nada". I have been excited about speaking to you. I was going to speak a little earlier but decided to wait until today. I know that my partner, "Sananda", will be speaking to you next week (during our call with Hollow Earth Network) as well as others. This was my time to spend with this group for this is an important group to us.

All that we have been talking about is now. You can read across the headlines across the world that much time is spent in speaking about all of this. And yet some of this has been behind closed doors beyond your eyesight, beyond your earshot. Beyond that which you could imagine. We are excited because this is unfolding now. It is starting now and is moving forward.

Everything that my beloved has spoken to you of is now. We know that as this unfolds for you in seeming small doses that you can see that there are actually large things that are happening. Large things that are taking place.

And each of you has that opportunity to be the creative one. To be in charge of your own existence for you are one cell in all of humanity on this planet. You are One in making new pathways to learn more about yourselves and about others. We are proud of you for keenly listening in to those upon the planet while withholding judgment and allowing each to find its way.

I am here to assure you that each of you is doing this perfectly. That you are doing what you came to do, perfectly. We know that there are many questions you can have but if you know that you are doing this perfectly, in the right time and the right place. And that everything you do takes all to the highest, know that you have done it well.

Next week's call will have new news for you. There will be new opportunities for you to get involved. All of these are things that you have known for years. You have felt in your bones for years. And now, finally are present in your world.

Take your time to get the rest you need. Take your time to examine the pathways that are opening for you. Councils will be opening shortly and calling for you to serve. All of these things we know because we know with whom we are working.

Today I give you great blessings and great love. Know you are exactly where you are meant to be. Thank you.

“One Who Serves”

Greetings to you. “One Who Serves” here to assist you.

Here to tell you that things are about to shift here, greatly. The old paradigm is coming to an end. It is not ending yet. There are still some things to be worked out but changes are afoot here. There is nothing that is going to stop it here.

There are some things that come up for temporary delays but they are just that, temporary delays. They are not going to hold it off. The Ascension is going through. Nothing is going to stop that. You are going through the Ascension process.

Much of what you have been expecting for some time is about to begin to unfold. We cannot give an exact time frame but we can tell you that there are many things happening behind the scenes that are about to come forward.

You have begun to see the beginnings of this. You spoke earlier in your discussion of dominoes and the first domino beginning to fall and yes, that is somewhat true. There are more to come but this is the beginning of this. And as James so well put it, there is a reverberation effect that is going to happen here or is already happening. You are going to see this reverberation happen all the way down the line from the beginnings here now to the next step and the next one and the next one and pretty soon you will have announcements of various kinds.

We are not going to say, of course, when it is going to be or if it is going to be the Fourth of July or the eighth of July or August 15th or whatever is in your thinking process because it is not your thinking process that is creating this. It is the imagination process. It is the higher vibrational process that is creating all of this change here. And all of this is coming together being orchestrated to bring all of this about.

So, you are a part of this orchestration. All that you see out there and all of those things happening behind the scenes are a part of this great orchestration. It is all of the pieces of the puzzle coming together.

But you know when you put a puzzle together that you may have used many hundreds or thousands of pieces to put this puzzle together. You get near to the end and you put the last pieces in and how elated you feel? This is what is about to occur here. The elation from the last pieces of the puzzle coming together. You are coming close to this now.

Do you have questions now for "One Who Serves" and "Ashira" is standing by.

Question: As we move up in consciousness is it important for us to understand how and why things work or are we to know they work and make them work?

"OWS"

Very good question and it is only necessary for that one who believes it is. If it is difficult to come to understanding and one needs to have a realization for what is occurring, then this one would need that at some level.

But for anyone who is finding themselves in higher vibration the higher vibration you are in, the less you will need an analytical side to things because it will just become as it will be. When you are in that BE-ing stage than all that has come into analytical understanding are no longer necessary. Does this make sense?

Question: I was meditating 4 or 5 nights ago and as I came out of meditation I was told, "Find the 444 Gate". Do you have guidance for me?

"OWS"

Find "444 Gate" is particularly for you, it is meant for you as a code. This is for deeper levels of your being. It does not make sense for anyone with who you might share this because it does not have meaning outside of yourself.

But in the deep levels within you will find the meaning, from where you come from to the understanding you bring into this incarnation here. This code will be given to you again. It will appear in times to come we will just say. It will have a more full meaning for you at that time. It will give you an understanding that you came into the life to move toward.

“Ashira”

In addition, this is for you to feel your way through. It is not analytical. This is not something that you are going to understand through your mind. It is something you are going to feel through your heart.

Question: Why were we given an analytical brain if we are not supposed to use it?

“OWS”

You are always the analytical one. You are using it. It is the left brain versus the right brain or not so much versus but the merging of the two. And the merging of the two brings a balance here. The balance brings you into the higher vibrations.

In the higher vibrations your left brain and your right brain will work together in tandem. In that respect you will be more fully into the creation process from your imagination.

The analytical brain is necessary to a point by itself, and this is what the Cabal has done to mankind, is to keep you in the analytical left brain side here. They have attempted to hold back the creative right brain side of self.

Question: So we are top heavy?

For some but not for all. You, yourself, are very much right brained as well. Your creative side has blossomed over the last years here. Your left brain side has come more and more into a balanced state. That is what all are attempting to do is to bring this balance together so they can work in tandem as we say.

“Ashira”

This is part of the evolution of mankind. Yes, the left brain has been made more important through the centuries through the work of the Cabal and through the work of humans. As you have moved toward this time of your evolution and feel these energies that are coming into the planet, everything is moving more into the state of balance.

It is time to walk away from what has been seen as the left brain's actions in this world. It is time to move into the balance of the two. And move more thoroughly into that higher vibration of feeling.

Question: I was wondering if you could confirm that I met an Ascended Master in a physical body a couple of years ago.

"OWS"

That is a personal question we can give an answer to. The answer is yes, you did have an experience and it will accentuate for you as you move along. This particular experience again and it will be more real for you and there will be others who are interacting with you as well.

Then we will release channel. As "Lady Nada" said, "Sananda" will be here next week with your call with Hollow Earth and it is important because there are some special things that are coming.

Special announcements yes and, it is going to be full show, let us put it that way. Keep it somewhat on the secretive side here. Hint. Hint. There are going to be things to share.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the ONE.

"Ashira"

I am "Ashira". It is always a pleasure to be with all of you on these Sundays.

We know that you come hanging on all our words hoping to hear something that makes it real. We do, each week, tell you things. This week it would seem that "Lady Nada" had a good message for you.

We are here to be of assistance. We are here to be on call. If you need us, call us and we are there. We are there for a hug. We are there to hold you if you cry. We are there when you laugh. We love the experience with you.

Yes. The coming call will be a lively one! We are looking forward to it.

With all of our love and blessings. Namaste.
