

"Are You Beginning To See And Know The Finish Line That Is Right There In Front Of You"?

Sananda and One Who Serves as channeled by James McConnell

These messages were given during our weekly Sunday Prepare For Change group in Phoenix, AZ on September 17, 2017

SANANDA

I AM Sananda.

And we wonder now as we look down upon all of you down from our perch, you might say, up on our ships. We look down and we see all that is happening all of the consciousness that is shifting and changing. And we wonder now are you feeling it? Are you feeling this new expression coming into you? Are you feeling this consciousness shift? Are you feeling this sense of anticipation that is coming over many across the planet?

Are you beginning to see and know the finish line that is right there in front of you? For it is right there in front of you.

Many of you have been feeling a sense of gleefulness, you might say, a sense of anticipation certainly, that all is coming to a crescendo. Many things are about to shift. And you are feeling this sense, you are feeling the ending of what you came here for. In other words you have been working toward this time for a very long long time period. You have been working toward this shift of consciousness, this frequency movement for a very long time. Anticipating this.

You came into this particular lifetime knowing that this is that lifetime, this is that one. And this is the one that will have the finish line. And you can look back on many of the lives that you have had wondering in those lifetimes whenever a conscious knowing came over you in a moment knowing when will this be? When will we reach the end? When will we reach the finish line?

And we can tell you now that you have reached this finish line. It is right there now. It only takes a little bit more to push you across. We are speaking not only of the ascension but of the transition that you are moving through now and this transition is pushing so many, many more souls across this finish line or coming close to it. And you are the ones that are needing to continue to work with this.

As you are beginning to see and feel and know the energies that are awakening across the planet, the energies that are awakening in the animals, and the insects as you have been speaking of. They are here.

They are part of the Elemental Kingdom. Those of the dragonflies, the hummingbirds, the butterflies, all of these are showing themselves now to you in various ways. They are not showing themselves as they are yet but they are showing themselves in ways that you can understand, in ways that you can be able to comprehend, and be able to know and feel the energy connection with them. And they are going to increase this process as well. Many of you, many more are going to be experiencing this.

And when you feel a butterfly, when you feel and sense a hummingbird coming close and you see that it is attempting to contact you open your eyes, open your ears and allow this process to happen because they have much to impart to you. To you personally, not to the collective as we are doing here, but personally to each individual, they will begin more and more to communicate to you. Because the time is now for this to happen. The time is now for these energies to increase, for the frequencies to increase across the planet and you yourselves, each one to begin to feel these frequencies more and more so that you are experiencing all that is possible in the moment that you can experience.

There is so much that is in the process. Yes you hear many things. You use your discernment in all of these situations so that you know that everything that is happening now is happening for a reason. So many things that are about to shift and change with your, those of the dark forces, what you call the cabal, they have come to an end. You are hearing this more and more yet you do not see it yet. You do not see it with your eyes, as of yet, that they have ended because you still see certain signs within the skies. You see certain things that happen on your newsreels. You see certainly storms that come upon you. But you also begin to know more and more that these storms, these signs that are showing and that have shown themselves for years and years and years and even lifetimes, are now showing themselves as much less than what they were before as the programming is being reduced more and more dissipating the veil. Dissipating and disappearing completely.

And my dear Nada telling you that there is no veil. And that is the truth: There is no veil. It is only there in your imagination or rather in your programming that it is there. It is only part of the illusion.

So know that as everything around you is an illusion, begin to see through that illusion more and more. And as you do that you will communicate with those of the other forces out there, the Elemental forces especially.

You will begin to experience contact and communication with these dragonflies and these butterflies and the dragons and all of this. You will begin to experience and communicate more with because they are there. And they are aware of you. And they are ready to welcome you into their world.

And that is important to know because you are moving out of this world. Not that you are going to leave the planet, step off the planet and onto other planets -- although yes that will be possible when the times and the frequencies are right. But for now know that you are evolving. You are evolving into a higher form of life and this higher form of life is going to take you into this next Golden Age.

I AM Sananda. I always enjoy these times that I can be with you and these times are going to increase more and more as we as a collective begin to work with you more and more directly, more and more individually. Yes we are working with you as a group, but we are going to begin to work more with you as individuals beginning to prepare you for that which is coming very shortly where those of you that have come here and have your missions set in front of you are going to begin to work more on those missions. And you will begin to know and understand exactly what those missions are.

All of my peace and love be with all of you now as I take my leave.

ONE WHO SERVES

Om Mani Padme Hum. Om Mani Padme Hum. Om. Om. Greetings to you. One Who Serves with you to carry on.

And we would say here to the one that brought up the being the one who is Athena, we are contemplating this. We will be looking into this and see if the James is able to have the connection with this one if they resonate together here. This is at this point yet unsure but it is possible certainly. So we will be looking into this to that one who has wondered about this.

As to all that is happening here all that is coming, we have been saying for some time 'fasten your seatbelts'. Keep them fastened because things are going to get a bit rocky here but as you've seen here in the coming of these storms, these coming of these monster storms, we might say that they were not so. They were not so because you are not buying into the illusion anymore. Those of you that have the power, those of you that have the knowing can literally steer these hurricanes. You can literally dissipate these hurricanes. They are meant for a reason but they have been in the past and in many ways they have been overcome by the forces of darkness to be able to utilize the energies to do their bidding. But this is changing now because you are no longer listening to this. You are no longer accepting fool-heartedly as you have in the past, accepting that their programming is going to control you because it is not.

So let go of all of this. Know that you have the power. Know that believing is seeing and you can create and steer away a storm. You can do all of these things that are needed to continue to allow this process to continue across the planet. And know that fear is dissipating rapidly.

Yes you speak of fear of spiders and all of these kinds of things -- we were eavesdropping, yes -- but know that this is a process that you are going through and these various insects are not going to be something you are going to have to be concerned about in the higher vibrations. They will not be. They will be transformed into other life forms that will be more akin to the energies that you will be moving into. So mosquitoes and flies and all of the biting insects and all of this will be gone. They will not be gone as you were saying, they will not be killed, they will be transformed. Just as you are moving through a transition they will also move through a transition and be with you in a new form in the higher vibrations.

So what you are seeing now in the various insects and all of these things such as the dragonflies and butterflies and all of this are going to be with you in this new in these new vibrations. But they will be with you as they are: as the sprites, as the elves, as the fairies, all of this. They will take their original form that they are just now showing you in these forms but they will take now their original forms when the time is right. And you will look into the trees and not see butterflies but you will see fairies in the branches just as you see birds now. Can you imagine this what this would be like? All the life forms coming alive to you.

Do you have questions now for One Who Serves?

Q & A

Q: I just wanted to see if this is true that I had gotten because I do teach and I want to make sure I'm teaching the truth. What I found out that Mother and Father God, that Father God had created our left side of our brain and that is reasoning and logic and his color is blue. And then Mother God created our right side which is pink which is intuition, love, and going to our heart, etc. And so then the combination of blue and pink makes the Violet Flame and this is where the Violet flame came from. Is this true or can you add anymore to that?

OWS: That is certainly correct but the only difference here, the only thing we would correct is that the creation process comes from the Mother of the Father/Mother God. The Father is unmanifest. The Mother is the manifest. The Mother is the creation. The Mother is the one that carries within the womb the creation of life. So you can look at it in this respect. But also look at it in the respect of both are one.

Q: Will astrology like numerology be a practice in the higher dimensions? Will it go further from our basic to advanced?

OWS: We can answer yes certainly in the affirmative of that. Astrology has never left your evolution here but it has been put somewhat in the background in terms of not being taught in your schools and all of these things. But this is going to change drastically because astrology is one of the greater sciences but it has purposely been held back. But, know that the ones that purposely held it back use it themselves. And they have used it for a very long time back from the Atlantean times and even before this. So it is very important it is very much a part of this process and will certainly be within the transition that you are moving through in the ascension process. As you are moving into this new Golden Age it will become a very big part of your educational process.

Q: What you were saying about the insects manifesting themselves to us in their original form, does this apply also to animals that they are, in their true form, is different than what we witness at this time?

OWS: Animals are a little bit different here in understanding because they are in their soul form that they are needing to be in now. That is not to say that they will not transition as well but many of them will continue as your pets and all of this and you will also come into contact with many other animals that will become pets. Think in terms of a tiger or a lion or one of those that you fear now that will move through this transition as well and there will be no more fear. And once there is no more fear they have no reason to create the fear because they will certainly not be eating you anymore and they will become your pets as well. They will become even more than pets they will become your brothers and sisters in different life forms.

Q: I was given some information about the Holy Trinity that it was individual to each of us and that it was Mother/Father God was one point and another point was our higher self, sort of like the Holy Spirit. And then the 3rd point would be ourselves along with our twin flame which makes one just like Mother/ Father God. I was just wondering, would you say I'm on point and also what can we do with this understanding? How does that get used in our lives to move forward toward ascension?

OWS: As we are understanding what you are asking here the answer is certainly yes. The Trinity as you are saying is in many different forms and has been for a very long time. The various churches or religions have changed this to work within their system. But the Trinity is exactly as you are saying. It comes from the Prime Creator originally and then spreads out from there you might say, so that the three become one and the one are always the three. So there is certainly the connection. As you are continuing to move through this ascension process you will come more and more to understand how this all is working together and comes together for you, both as individuals and as a collective.

Q: I want to send my love and say thank you for your confirmation regarding Athena.

OWS: Very good yes. It is in process. We will look into this as we say here.

You have to understand that certain of the channels -- and not only this one James but all channels -- are able to resonate to different beings. That is why you see certain ones that only bring through certain entities, certain beings that they can resonate to. And to bring about the changes that are needed sometimes it requires some work, you might say, to establish the connection or the resonance to that new one coming in. An example here is when the James first began to allow us to speak through him and those of you that were there at those times would know that the James when these energies first came through even from us, the One Who Serves, his neck was very stiff after each session and this was because the energies were not quite yet compatible. And other ones such as Aramda and even Sananda at times were very difficult for this one to bring through in those early times. But that has all changed and shifted now because of coming to a resonance, a feeling a connection, you might say, more fully.

Q: I'm finding it a little bit difficult at the moment because of the unconditional love that I'm working towards. And speaking to people, some people just don't understand where we're coming from. And this unconditional love helps me to just send them love because I find that only in my little group, my meditation group, am I open -- like your group -- to speak about these wonderful things that are happening and our communication with our little insects. Can you give me some advice to help me through this please?

OWS: Yes we can tell you that this is the reason for these groups. Not only this group certainly but many of the thousands of groups across the planet that come together as a like-minded, like-souled, you might say, that are in the same and working in the same consciousness so that you could feel like you are not alone. And you can also be able to utilize your collective consciousness together to bring about change to the world, to the planet here. And this is what you are all doing. And when you bring a small group or a large group, it matters not, the small group becomes part of the larger group, and that larger group then becomes part of the larger groups yet, and so on and so on. And remember in your Bible where it is said, "Where two or more are gathered in my name there will I be amongst you." That is speaking of higher self and Source being there with you when two come together. Two or more. You see?

Q: I have an observation that I want to share and I want to ask about it. So we have conversations that are not really typical -- not typical of the masses -- and we see others as different from us and we wish that maybe we wish that they were more like-minded. Isn't that creating a judgment? And if through the judgment we judge that we somehow are higher up or different or better. So my question is rather than seeking that others change, that we be the change. Is that a better way to look at it?

OWS: Yes certainly, but you are not seeking to change others, you are seeking only to change yourself. And as you change yourself you change others.

Q: One Who Serves I find that difficult sometimes with family because family don't accept the changes that they see in you. This is what I'm referring to. I don't judge anyone at all because everyone is in their own place and you have to allow them to be. I'm just saying it's difficult at times.

OWS: Yes it can be but always remember be the change you want to see in the world. You be it and whatever they see, whatever they experience (meaning the rest of the world), they experience. And it is not your concern. You change yourself. You work on yourself. You continue to evolve yourself into the higher version of yourself and then all will come as it needs to. And when you come to this full realization then all of the ideas of programming and all of the control issues and all of these things will go away. Not only in yourself but in all of those around you as well.

Q: Can you tell me what the difference is between regular crystals and a Herkimer Diamond and how to use them?

OWS: We can tell you the idea of diamonds and all of these things is a part of your programming process in terms of making this a semi-precious or precious stone that is then worth money and all of these things. But the diamond itself is just a stone, is just a crystal. It is just a part that is here within the Earth and comes from that experience within the Earth here and it is not something that you need to be concerned about or anything because as we say it is just part of the programming.

But crystals themselves now that is another story and this was part of your expression from long ago here on the planet certainly with the Atlantean times. And crystals have come what you would say almost full circle here. They will come completely full circle from the Atlantean times. So from the time of the fall of Atlantis the idea and the understanding of crystals left your understanding and left your memories and all of this because the crystals are what was used you to create the fall of Atlantis as it was. So you are moving though back to the times where you can then begin to use these crystals again. So this is all coming back as we say coming full around here.

Q: I was trying to figure out about what they call a Herkimer Diamond which is a crystal. I don't know what the difference is there.

OWS: What we would say to you on this is to whenever there are question types such as this type of thing, you can look it up and see. Do your own research for this. This is not something that you need to rely on outside understanding to come to your own understanding of this. Simply look it up and you will find the answer to this. Ask as you are going into this process to help you to find the answer you are looking for.

Q: I have a question about how our current clients use the energy of the crystal. Most of our electronics run on crystal energy. Our phones, our computers are all run by crystals. Would you say that they know what's going on?

OWS: Yes we would say that this is what we were talking about in terms of everything coming full around here. The use of crystals is coming back, very minimally yet at this point, but it will come back more and more as you move into these higher vibrations. Back in some ways to what it was in the Atlantean times, in those earlier times. Not so much at the time of the fall but before that where crystals were used in so many aspects they would be your electronics. They would be your electricity or rather generate your electronics and electricity that they were then, and as you are experiencing now. More and more you will find that there is a strong connection between your past and what you are moving into here.

We are needing to release channel is there one more question before we do so and then we release here.

Q: There's been a lot of recent talk about AI or artificial intelligence. What are your thoughts on that?

OWS: We have lots of thoughts on that but we need you to be a little bit more specific here.

Q: Should we be concerned about it overtaking us or controlling us? That's what the talk around here has been based upon.

OWS: We can tell you that that is part of the old programming; that is part of the continuing illusion. But once you have moved past the illusion, once you have moved out of this old programming you will no longer have to be concerned about this type of thing. This is what the dark forces were utilizing to control the masses. And as this is going to be dissipated -- it is already dissipating greatly -- and once it is gone entirely you will no longer have to be concerned with this. It is similar to your movie The Matrix. At the end of The Matrix, the third one as we are finding it, when the those of the humans, those that had awakened completely overcame the machines, overcame the artificial intelligence, in other words moved beyond it, and then they would be completely free of all of this. This is what you are moving toward. Yes.

We are needing to release channel now. As we do so continue to operate; continue to move within your own expression; within your own being, to continue to raise your own vibrations; raise the frequency around you wherever you can.

Find yourself in gratitude. Find yourself in the beauty all around you. Find yourself in a very thankful state as much and as many times as you can throughout the day. Be aware. Be conscious. And as you are aware and conscious you will find yourselves more and more in the higher vibrations and therefore it in the higher fourth and into the fifth dimension more and more frequently.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.
