Ashtar and One Who Serves as channeled by James McConnell

These messages were given during our weekly Sunday Prepare For Change group in Phoenix, AZ on January 14, 2018

COMMANDER ASHTAR

I AM Ashtar.

I come to be with you at this time, in this moment, to bring you certain news. News that is forthcoming across the planet. News that we, those of us in the ships, have been aware of for some time.

We have been expecting, working toward this moment: This moment of freedom. This moment of freedom for the planet, for all of those of you on the planet.

Yes there are those moments where strife still continues, where fear still arises, just as it did recently. But also just as we have been saying for some time now there is no reason to fear for fear is not real. Fear is only a part of this illusionary process. It is only as real as you make it, as real as your programming has made it over the many lifetimes.

But know that everything is in control. Those of us, those of the Pleiadian fleets, we all have control over this situation at this point. Not to the point where we interfere with your free will but to the point where we can intercept anything that comes to the planet from outside or even that is sent from another part of the planet that has fearful ramifications with it. For this will not be allowed just as it is not being allowed at this time.

And those that still attempt to work with these old ways, these old paradigm ways of bringing fear, of bringing catastrophes, of bringing chaos, they now are beginning to realize more and more that their time is over, their days are numbered. Many of them at this point are beginning to turn back toward the Light. Because when faced with the choice of coming back to the light or being consumed by the light you can imagine what they would mostly choose. But there are those, those that are yet stubborn that hold off. That is their choice. That is their free will. And we will not interfere with their free will just as we will not interfere with yours.

But know this, that all is coming together, all is in the process now of completion. You will begin to see more and more evidence of this. Those of you that require proof, those of the planet's population that require proof will be receiving it more and more now.

Those of you that already believe will now begin to see more and more of all that you have been creating up until this time. For you, each one of you are creating the New Golden Age every moment in front of you. With every single thought that you have you are creating the New Earth; you are creating your new existence here on and in this planet.

Many of you long for those times when you can find yourselves here with us in these ships and will reunite once again with those of your families, of your brothers and sisters. For all is a part of the Oneness and you are all the Oneness.

I AM Ashtar. I leave you now but will be back shortly for there are many things that are about to transpire. All of my peace be with you.

ONE WHO SERVES

Om Mani Padme Hum. Om Mani Padme Hum. Om. Om. Greetings to you!

How are you all doing? Feeling good? Feeling wonderful? Yes we heard in the background feeling groovy. That is good! You need to be feeling good. You need to be focusing more and more on feeling good.

There are those moments that you have where you feel what you call down in the dumps and depressed and all of this, but when you look at it from a higher point of view what good does that do? What good does it do to have those down depressed feelings and linger in those feelings? Yes we know you're going to have them at times. Certainly yes have them. But then have it and be gone with it. Be done with it. Do not wallow in it.

In your past programming you have learned to wallow in your self-pity and all of these kinds of things. But there is no need to do that anymore. Feel it for a moment and then let it go. Move on and find the joy. Just simply turn it around. Turn off the one switch and turn on the other switch. That is all you need to do; it is that simple, if you allow for that process to happen. But so many of you have been programmed for so long to feel the, feel the feelings within you and become awash with them. But really, when you really look at this what good does it do you? Where does it bring you? Yes you hear many times, 'oh have your feelings. Have them Be in them. Do not squash them'. And that is true; have the feelings. That is what we are saying. Have them ... but not for long. Do not hold onto them. We are talking of course about what you might call the more negative feelings that are there within you. The positive ones have them a lot! Enjoy! Be in joy.

As we say many times, if you are feeling a little down in the dumps go outside. Feel the sunlight come onto you. Feel the pranic energy entering through your spinal cord. Yes that is something you are going to learn to do.

If you have not already done it and most of you have not, learn to feel the energy come in from the Sun. Feel it come in through the top of your spinal system very near the neck area. And it penetrates. That energy penetrates into you. And it can sustain you. It can sustain you but only if you know about it and believe it.

But that is not something you need to be concerned about now. Just when you have the opportunity be aware of what you are taking into your body, the foods the drinks, all of this, be aware of it but do not become feeling guilty about it. That is where the real rub comes from here where you begin to feel guilty. I had a piece of pie, [Laughter] oh my goodness. Why did I do that? Or a piece of cake or ice cream or whatever it might be. We know this one James loves ice cream. Have it enjoy it. Not to over doing it though. Everything in moderation. This is what we are trying to tell you now everything in moderation. And when you have those bad feelings those negative down feelings move on past them. Let them go, they are not helping you. All they do is bring your vibration down. Why would you want to bring your vibration down when you are working so hard to bring them up? Be in the higher vibration. Be the higher vibrations.

You have questions here for One Who Serves now?

Q & A

Q: I was just wondering if you could explain the Bible verse, “The first shall be last and the last first for many shall be called and few chosen.”

OWS: We think you mostly already know what this means in terms of working with those of you the light workers, the light warriors. The first ... hold please [Pause] ... The first shall be last and the last shall be first. So what has been going for some time here where the first are always attempting to be the first. They are the elite. They are the cabal. They are the ones that have been in control. But what Yeshua was saying in that verse that you are speaking of is that the last, (those of you), the meek shall inherit the earth, those of you who are this meek. Those of you are the last. Those of you will move to the first, to the front. You are the vanguard. You are the ones that are foreshadowing all that is coming ahead here. You are the ones that are leading the charge you might say. That is what that is meant by that.

Q: Yeah I actually did know that but I guess I wanted to hear you say that.

OWS: And you are the chosen ones as well. So...

Q: I guess but we are humble by nature and it's hard to take it all in.

OWS: Hold please. Many are called and few are chosen. And “few” in this case, that was certainly speaking of you the chosen ones. You the ones that came that are the 144,000 and all of this. You have heard this before in many different ways, many different times, but you, those of you chose to be here and were chosen to be here out of the many millions and millions that also wanted to be here.

Now please understand there is a shortage of bodies here on this planet. Many want to come here especially at this time to be here and to be awakened in this wonderful amazing time that is ahead here and is even in the now at this point. But so many are not able to at this point so you are the chosen ones. You are the ones that are able to be here now.

But also understand that when you speak of the bodies that are here, the 7-something billion people that are here and what would happen if you would suddenly have regeneration of all of your bodies and no more dying and no more illness and sickness and all of this? And the bodies there would still continue to be many births and there would be no deaths so eventually you could see that there would be what you might call an overpopulation happening here. But that will not happen because those that are not wanting to be here will not need to be here anymore. You can go to other planets, other solar systems, even other galaxies so there will never ever be an overpopulation in this situation here. You see?

We know we go off the tangent here but it was important to say because there are people out there that have been wondering about this -- you know who you are -- and have not asked this question. But we are answering it anyway here.

Q: Well thank you because yes I'm one of those who has wondered about that even myself.

Q: It was wonderful that you talked about the spinal column because it acts as an energetic antenna as well, doesn't it? And it was interesting because I was thinking about my spinal column and then you brought it up so, power of consciousness.

I was a little bit perplexed about what a channeler was bringing thru from Archangel Michael. She said that Michael is saying that it's a state of emergency and I'm a little bit perplexed about that because I'm not really feeling that it's a state of emergency so I'm wondering if you could shed some light on that. She generally does speak to Michael but I'm a little bit perplexed about that because I guess I'm not feeling what she's feeling or I'm not downloading what she's downloading and putting out to the collective. If it's wrong information I want to be really careful so I don't put out wrong information to the collective. I just want your take on it for the collective.

OWS: We are a little bit perplexed here in what you mean by state of emergency. What is a state of emergency here?

Q: Yeah me too that's the thing here. It's a channeled message that comes onto you tube that a lot of people listen to and she says that Lord Michael is saying that there's been a state of emergency on the planet, which we're very aware of because we've been in it for a long time. But what's perplexing is this whole fear part of the state of emergency. And the thing is, people who are just waking up and hear that there is a little bit of fear mongering and I do worry for the rest of the collective.

OWS: Now we would ask you a question. In order to answer your question we need to ask you this question. How do you feel when you hear a term there is now a state of emergency?

Q: I always speak to my higher self...

OWS: No, that is not what we are asking here. How do you feel when you hear this?

Q: When I hear that someone says there is a state of emergency I almost think there's not a state of emergency, it's not.

OWS: Yes. But what we are getting to here is when someone hears this, this idea of state of, this is emergency now, a state of emergency, you feel panic, you feel fear. Now how would that be something that would be beneficial to those of you here on the planet to have the fear? You see that is exactly what we are moving away from is this sense of fear. So we would never come and say in terms of this that there is now a state of emergency to the planet because that only brings up fear. You see? And this would never be.

Always whenever you hear any type of channeling or any messages of any kind, feel how it is to you at that point. How does it resonate within you? If it brings up fear then it is not true. Is not something that carries truth in it. There may be some truth to it but not fully here. You see? There is never 100% in any of these messages. Whether, what we are saying now is never a 100% as it comes through a filter that is here on the planet. In this case it is the one James. In the case you spoke of it was another one, and so one and so on and all of the various channeled messages. There is much truth in much of it but not completely. There is much truth in all of the various intelligence that comes forth but not completely. You see? So this is when you need to use discernment.

But we will say to you there is no state of emergency anywhere at this point for the planet here. Maybe for certain areas, yes certainly, just as there was prematurely, you might say, for the area of Hawaii of what occurred there. But that was kept from happening certainly so it was not anything to be concerned about. But there was a message that was sent out and brought fear and this is what the cabal wanted here. They wanted this fear to be brought out. They wanted much more; they wanted to actually create a war situation; be able to blame one area of the planet that they're responsible so that they could create a war here, but of course that was not ever going to be allowed. Just as it will never be allowed. Just as none of these major types of catastrophes/calamities that could be created by man will not happen. You see?

Q: I totally get what you're saying because that's the thing. If people are just waking up and listening to this channel, they're going to be slightly fearful and need to use their discernment. So I just get a little bit perplexed of these channelers that are coming on YouTube and putting fear into the new people waking up which is a bit naughty. You've put everything into perspective for the collective and I thank you.

OWS: Very good yes.

Q: The cabal, and maybe other people from other planets that visit here, all have a thing they call quasi-crystals where they combine two elements and fast freeze them to make crystal. And I was just wondering if you could give us an idea how that works and what it does to the crystal lattice or whatever makes it work?

OWS: What we can tell you on this is that crystal technology is something that was here within the planet for a very long time. You had it in Atlantis, it is there in the inner Agarthan areas within the planet, in Telos and all of this continue to use this crystalline technology because it is akin to the Earth. It is akin to the planet here. And working with these crystals is working with the planet's energy. Whenever you work with crystals you are working directly with Gaia's energy. This is what you may not be aware of. But the energy is multiplied or amplified rather through these crystals. And this crystalline technology is coming back to the planet. You had it here in Atlantis certainly and you are going to have it here again. It is a part of the process here.

Now as to the crystals and all this technology coming from the Galactics, from other civilizations certainly yes, they have all, they all work with these energies. They all know how to work with them and they are continuing to do this and will bring their energy technology as well to the planet. So you not only have the energy or the technology that has been created and held back here on the planet but you will also have all of the technology coming from the Galactic civilizations that will be visiting here as well.

There is a lot to look forward to but there is a lot to be in the now as well. So always we always reiterate this. Don't only look to the future as your salvation. Look to the now, the moment you are in and live every moment as if it were your last. Okay?

Q: I'm reading a book at the moment that is saying Sedona is the Crystal City and the city of the star people. Was it part of Lemuria?

OWS: Very interesting question you ask here. Sedona and that area was what you would call an outpost of that Lemurian and Atlantean as well at that time. And this is a very energetic area and you are correct in that the first city of light will materialize there above Sedona and be a part of that area as well as the times go here. As the frequencies continue to rise more people are going to begin -- especially even in this next year here this year you are in -- people are going to begin to material... or begin to be able to see the City of Light with their physical eyes as these changes continue to develop here. And as more people begin to see through that veil -- that they think is still there but as you are beginning to know more and more it is not there anymore, it is only there based on your programming -- but you will, those of you if you certainly if you go to the Sedona area you will be able to begin, in the later parts of this year as we find it more so, that you will begin to be able to see that which others are not able to see.

Q: I have a question about our ascension process. As we transmute and heal and stay in the training of connecting to our Source our higher self, we're adding to the ascension process by helping others to awaken and connect to their higher self. This might be linear, but looking ahead to when our mentors get here and we continue with our mission and to help with the planet, I kind of feel since there are 7 billion on the planet with all the light workers working together we are still going to need back up right? You guys are helping us from above but when you come here are you going to be able to help like with what we going to be doing? That's kind of like my question. What are we going to be doing? More healing work across the planet? I don't see that vision and I'm curious.

OWS: Yes we understand your question. And we would say to you that your missions will become more and more clear to you as you continue to move through this transition process. And as your missions become clear to you, you will begin then to move into them and begin to work with them and those things you are wondering now will become crystal clear at that time. And we use that terminology purposefully here. Crystal clear.[Unintended] Unintended, yeah.

Q: Trust the process.

OWS: Yes, trust the orchestration process. Everything is being orchestrated here. We say this many different times but just know that this is the case. You are beginning to see the beginnings of this more and more you are seeing what we have been saying for some time now. And the materializations of these things are coming in now: the various arrests, the ending of the chemtrails. That is something that is coming as well. We know that was spoken of here earlier in your discussion and that is something that is coming. It is in the process now you might say. It will be ending. And there are many other things and all of the technology and all of these things are going to be coming forth, first as a trickle and then as a flow begin to come into the planet. Okay?

Q: I've been hearing about crypto currency and some people are saying it's a strategy from the cabal to prevent the GCR. Other people on talk radio shows are saying that it's part of the digital money coming to the new banking system. But the process to buy is very strict so that the money does not fall into the black market. Can you tell us what is currently the correct path of crypto currency? Is that part of the GCR for future currency exchanges?

OWS: As we look at the situation we would say to you that as we have been saying everything is being orchestrated. Now to understand specifically though about this type of technology or this type of financial remuneration you might say that is coming in, it is not a part of the light worker / light warrior community. It is not a part of what the Alliance is bringing in. The Alliance, those that are working for the light, are working toward the eventual movement away from money completely as a need for transfer. But in this transition that you are moving through there is a need for it still currently so it is always about balance here. And the idea where money is backed by that which is precious metals, gold, silver, all of this, is the way that it is going to go. That was the way it was meant to be in the beginning because it is backed by something, it has meaning to it. Your paper money as it is has no meaning whatsoever except what you give it. You see? And what has been given it over the time has created such a, an imbalance in this situation here that it cannot continue. So this use of coming to other types of currency, crypto currency as you are calling it here, is something that is being brought out by the cabal because they want to go to a completely cashless society. They want to still be in control and they can control this type of thing even though what you hear is that they cannot. Even though what you hear is that it is very safe it is not. It is not something that ... it is something that can be manipulated here. But it is being told to you that it cannot be. This is the conundrum, you might say, that is being brought out here.

So in answer more fully, directly to your question this crypto currency is more by the cabal than it is by the forces of light. The forces of light are working diligently toward bringing this money situation into being backed by precious metals. And the precious metals, by the way, are in the trillions and trillions and trillions and trillions and gadzillions and whatever you want to call it here. There is so much abundance here on the planet in this gold, and precious metals, and jewels, and all of this, it is beyond your imagination how much there is. There is no ... [Shortage] There is no shortage of this, yes. Thank you.

Shoshana: There's just one thing that came to mind ... [audio interference] manipulation.

OWS: That is correct. Where there is greed there is always going to be manipulation. But your New Golden Age will move beyond the idea of greed here. There will be no need for it. Think in, just for a moment imagine every household across the planet has the replicator and you can replicate anything that you want. Not just tea as in Star Trek. Tea, black tea. Earl Grey hot, yes. Not just that but anything. And if you can replicate anything, if you want to replicate a $100 bill or a $1000 bill do it. But what good will it do you? There won't be any need for it anymore. You want to replicate a block of gold, a pound of gold, what good would that do you? You will not need it anymore you see you can replicate anything that you want. So all of this, all of this talk about crypto currency and gold backed and everything is only part of the transition here now. But you will all move past this transition and as you continue to move through the ascension process, all of this will become moot.

Q: Some of us in the group live in California and California has been very hard hit recently this year, last year with fires and mudslides and floods and various things. I want to just get a picture of California in the near future. Can we talk about California because we've been so hard hit here?

OWS: Yes. What we can tell you is that California, that area of the country, was part of the Lemurian continent at one point. Was very close to it, they were able to move freely across from one area to the other and the energies there in the California are still the Lemurian energies. You see? Also in the Mount Shasta area certainly as well. And all of this that you are experiencing there now is because of the energies that are still held there, still trapped there you might say from the sinking of Lemuria, the sinking of the continent of Mu at those times. And the fear and all of that that went with it at that point, there is much that is happening because of this, because of the energetic situation that is there. But all of this will be curtailed or will be moved, you will move through this without the without the fear that is accompanying this, if you allow it. If you continue to have the fear, the fear will continue to bring these energies up. And as these energies are brought up it will continue to bring up this various changes there in the area. Now certainly the cabal has known this for a time period here. Long time. And they have been doing their part to work with these energies and create these catastrophes that are happening there. So they are a big part of this.

There is of course the planet herself, Gaia herself, that is also doing some of this because of a cleansing process that is needed here. There is much in the way though of energetic conditions here.

There is something here that has not yet been given here as we find it, in terms of the connection here with the Lemuria.

Q: That makes total sense. So we might likely have more of a continuation potentially of this?

OWS: Potentially based on the way things are right now, yes, there may be some more of these types of situations based on the probability that is right now. But that could shift. That can change. Just as you have been able to work with hurricanes and things of this nature before, you can do this with those things which are happening there in California as well in terms of drought in terms of rain in terms of fires and of all of this. Fire is a little bit more difficult though because much of this was created here.

Q: I've got a question about the fires. We've seen lasers and things of this nature. Was that cabal against cabal or Alliance or the Galactics?

OWS: That is what we are saying here. Yes. It was predetermined you might say by those of the cabal here who create the, create the situations that have been there in the California in terms of the drought area, in terms of holding off the rain, in terms of making it very dry there so that then they could start the fires here. Part of this was to take attention away from much else that was happening. Certainly they want to take attention away from everything that is involved in their coming out of the shadows. But they cannot hold this off any longer and they will be brought out of the shadows completely and will be brought to -- not want to say the term trial here -- but they will be brought to atone for their for those things which they have done up to this point.

Q: Thank you. And in addition to that with the replacement of let's say the Congress that is corrupt and being part of the cabal etc. and they're being replaced or are being reeducated or transmuted etc. there is an opportunity for new government, new leadership to come into place. Is that something that we're to look forward to and to expect changes in government basically out with the old and in with the new?

OWS: Absolutely, yes. You are going to experience this most likely in this early part of this year you are going to begin to more be -- rather here more the middle part toward the later part of this year you will experience much of this changeover within your government. Again this is all based on current situation now. Based on possibility and probability here.

Q: This is about social housing / government housing. A lot of people all around the world are given government housing or social housing, (I'm not sure what the terminology is in America,) [Section 8] where the government will give you a house to live in – you have to pay rent but it's given to vulnerable people. Are those houses around the world that these governments own, are they going to give that to the people who live in those houses? [Free of charge] Is it going to be paid off by gold or ...

OWS: All this is part of the transition here that you are speaking of where those that are homeless will be given shelter and all of this initially and more in the beginnings part here to bring a balance. It is all again about balance. So those that are homeless those that have no food have no water will be given this. And it will come from not the government necessarily, but from the people. And it will be brought about by the projects that are in the works here. When the money is released in this transition here, when the money is released these projects will begin to take care of all of these types of situations you are speaking of.

And the idea of owning something will become something that you are not concerned about anymore. You will not need to own anything. Because if you own something then someone can take that away from you. And that will not be the case there will not be any need for this. Certainly when you have the replicators you replicate a home you want. And when you go beyond the replicators and you are able to use your own imagination and visualization process to create anything that you want, you can create a home anywhere you want. You can create it here on this planet, you can create it on another planet, you can have it on many different planets if you want. You can do anything you want you see? This is the freedom we are speaking of. This is the freedom that Ashtar spoke of briefly there. The freedom that is coming here. This is what you are looking forward to.

Q: Absolutely. I've seen visions of the replicators replicating houses or buildings for people to live in.

OWS: It is already happening at another level in terms of your 3-D printers that are beginning here. They are even able to print homes right now in the China area. They are printing entire buildings. Can you imagine? That is just the forerunning of the replicators here. There is so much technology that is coming. You are going to be amazed here of what is going to be happening. [Can't wait!]

But you can wait. [Caller talking over OWS] This is what we want you to understand here. You can wait and you must wait. But you must not sit back and wait for this and do nothing in the process. Don't give up your jobs, don't give up your relationships thinking the ships are coming and you are going to be taken up on the ships and all of this. It might happen but do not expect it at this point. Just be ready for it as these things develop. That is what we need to help you to understand. Everything is being orchestrated and everything is going to develop it as it needs to. So just to be in the right place at the right moment at the right time and everything will take care of itself. Go with the flow is always the way to do this here. Just go with the flow.

We need to move on here. Are there any other questions before we release channel?

Q: I've been working my five rites and I do a lot of spinning and what happens is I start having issues with different parts of my body causing me to pull back on that particular thing I was doing. It occurred to me that maybe I am being targeted. Am I being targeted somehow so that I slow down on something? And I kind of got that experience because everything that was happening was like, this will take me out of the game for this exercise, this will take me out of the game for that exercise, and so I'm wondering, is that possible? Can that be done? As we are ascending would the dark forces actually target us to like try to slow us down in that way? And what's something that I can say to get that to go away? If there is such a thing?

OWS: It would only be targeted if you had purpose here or for the cabal to target you. But you are not so you do not need to be concerned about that. As a matter of fact all of you that are here on the phone and here in the room do not need to be concerned about that because you have much protection and you are also not on their radar as a personality. You may be on their radar as a group but not as personality.

So no concern there. Now what is happening here... [Questioner interrupts] Hold please. Let us finish here.

What is happening here with you, though, with what you are doing in spinning and all of this, this is wonderful but it is exactly what we spoke of here earlier times where we spoke of taking heaven by storm. So when you are doing these things you are speeding up the process here with the kundalini energy. And the kundalini energy is so powerful it can completely overcome your entire central nervous system here. And if it does this it is going to create problems just as it is doing. But they are just minor problems at this point. Aches, pains, different neck aches, things like this, are just a part of the process here as you are going through this. Not something to be concerned about but something to be aware of. And as you are doing, you are dialing it back you might say, and this is what your higher self is having you do here by giving you these various symptoms that you are having. Because it is your higher self is telling you to hold off a little bit, back off a little bit, and then resume. But do not resume too fast too much because you are, you are doing it prematurely in some respects here. If you suddenly begin to do spinning where you have not done it before that can bring about ramifications that you are not ready for. Also you do not have a teacher that is right there working with you in a physical body as of yet -- your mentors are coming but they are not there yet in your term here the physical body -- to help you through this process. So you have your higher self certainly and that is what you are listening to and being guided by here. So that is what we would suggest to you here. You need to continue to do it in the way you are doing it. Feel the symptoms and back off a little bit and then go back to it and back off again. But you may even want to dial down the spinning a little bit. Maybe too much for you. But that is up to you.

Q: Okay I appreciate that. But I just wanted to double check too because I thought I got the message that there was some outside intervention because I do have a little bit of a name that I'm accumulating for myself in the world of having people move forward in life and personal growth and development and I wondered if that was starting to show up?

OWS: Not enough for you to be concerned about. If they haven't taken out (Names a certain individual that has quite a following with the Light forces) yet I think you do not have anything to be concerned about.

Q: Yeah and I thought they had some ways to do it sort of inside you that they implanted in us not necessarily that they're saying let me target so and so but could be some kind of implants that if they saw we were getting to a certain place they would start to throw stuff at us.

OWS: We have spoken of this before in another time here where we spoke of these implants and they are not something to be concerned about. They have been taken care of. For those of you those of you the light workers the light warriors you have much protection. There are instances where certain ones draw attention to themselves and then they can be targeted in a sense. But it is not something for you, who is asking this question, or for any of you at this point that are here with us that are part of this group have anything to be concerned about. We are very much aware. We, being those of us, the Ascended Masters, the Galactics are very much aware of this group and all that you are doing here as a part of this and all that you are, even more important here, all that you are going to be doing as a part of this.

Q: The Pleiadian that Barbara Marciniak channels has pointed out that Elon Musk's first name can be broken down into the words/names El and On which are both names for the Sumerian god Anu. And what I find interesting is Elon Musk says that he doesn't even believe in God. So my question is, is Elon Musk some sort of a ray or emanation or something from Anu?

OWS: First of all the El and On you are using is not in the terminology that you are getting here. The On is a universe, another universe. El is the El race that was here on this planet long ago and they had evolved into the fourth and higher dimensions, fifth and higher dimensions. They seemingly were here and then they were not here. And they moved beyond the three-dimensional experience just as you are in the process of doing as well. So the idea of this one taking this name Elon is not something that you need to be concerned about. It is just a part of this process for this particular individual. It is not anything to do with the Annunaki as you are saying but this one can go either way as we are finding it here. But we are not going to go into depths in terms of certain individuals. Certain times will do that but for this particular one not at this point. So this -- we do not like to use this terminology -- but this needs to remain classified at this time.

Any other questions here? Then we release channel. Just ... [Long pause] No other message here.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.
