

Remain Calm As The Storm Approachs

Sananda and One Who Serves as channeled by James McConnell

These messages were given during our weekly Sunday Prepare For Change group based in Payson, AZ on August 26, 2018. SANANDA

I AM Sanada.

As always it is such a pleasure to be with you, to be able to share, and open up consciousness within you and all around you or to assist in doing that. For that is what this is all about--is raising consciousness wherever you can, whenever you can.

Make it your daily activity, your daily purpose, you might say--to raise your consciousness whenever the opportunity arises, whatever it might be. Feel the Love coursing through your body and as that Love moves through your body, send it out. Send it out to whomever would have a need for it. Let the Love express outward. For know that you ARE that Love, that expressed Love of the Father-Mother God. Let it always express outward. Do not hold it in. Let it out. Express the Love, the Consciousness, the Light.

As you know, many things are continuing to change. Many shifts are happening. And the same old-same old is no longer holding true. Some would still hold on to that, would want the status quo. But that is all changing--for the status quo, the same old-same old--will not be allowed too much longer. And for those that want to stay in that space and want to continue to know the familiar in their lives, that want to stay within that comfort zone that they have always known, that will be available to them; but for those of you that are ready to move on into a Higher Level of Consciousness, Higher Vibration, to actually experience in a full waking state those dreams, those experiences you have been speaking of, to actually have that on an every-moment basis, this is what is ahead for you.

And I tell you now, as Sananda, it is time now to remain calm as the Storm approaches. We have spoken of this Storm before. You hear it in many different ways, and it IS approaching. And with it, a great many changes are coming.

You only need to continue to hold patience for just a little bit longer. For the many things that have been happening in the background are now beginning to come forward and are going to begin to become revealed. And there is nothing that can stop it. For it is destined. It is destined for the Truth to be revealed to all of mankind.

And the Truth shall come in many different ways from many different sources. One of those sources being your media. For even that which you call the mass media is beginning to turn. Because those that are in control or have been in control are going to lose that control, or are going to turn it over, and the Truth will be revealed from many different directions.

And it will be overwhelming to a great many who will begin to see some of these things, hear some of these things that you have been experiencing now for a while. They will hear it now for the first time. And just as it was quite shocking to you at times--some of the things that you have heard, think about what it will be like for them when it all comes forward--almost all at once. They will be shocked.

And you, those of you that have been preparing and acclimating to these energies will be there to assist, to share, to open up those things which you have known for a while and it will be time for them to now know.

I am Sananda. I leave you now in Peace and Love and truly stay calm, for the Storm does approach.

One Who Serves

Om Mani Padme Hum. Om Mani Padme Hum. Om. Om. Greetings to you!

One Who Serves here with you to continue on, to continue to bring these messages forward to you in all different ways and to assist in all the different ways that we can and have been doing. But as we have said many, many times, as we are assisting you, you are assisting us. You are assisting us in preparing those that are ready for these revealings as Sananda is saying and as many others are also saying that you are assisting to be there when it is time for those that are in need, or those that will be open and become aware and awakened. It will be time for them to hear some of these things which you already know. And that time does approach.

Do you have questions now for One Who Serves?

Q & A

Q: [Emailed question] My question is for three to four days, Vice President Pence visited Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas. During his speech, he announced to set foot on the moon permanently. We know we already have Manhattan-like buildings on the dark side of the moon by the Secret Space Program. He also made reference of the Space Force. It seems like they are moving very fast and want to have something done by 2020. We know that our Galactic Family gave them the ultimatum of disclosure regardless of what they do. Has there been a new negotiation between our Galactic Family and President Trump?

OWS: Not so much “new” negotiations, but “ongoing” negotiations have been in the works. That between the Galactics, as you are saying, and also those of the Light Forces, the Alliance, which of course, the President Trump is a part of, and these negotiations, these secret meetings in many cases, have been ongoing and continue to occur. And there is much that is being discussed at those levels that is beyond the knowing of not only the American public, but the World public here as well. But it is coming to a head, you might say, where the disclosure as is being said here is coming forward. It starts with the Secret Space Program, moves now to the Space Force, as it is being called--the new Space force; but this new Space Force is just simply a part of the Space Program, the old Space Program. It is just bringing it out now to the public so that they can save face, you might say. They do not have to say "We have known this all along, we have been holding this back from you." They are doing everything they can so that that does not happen. But that the information still comes forward and the Truth is still revealed. Okay?

Q: [Emailed question] The second question is, about ten days ago, the Mayor of the City of Chicago proposed a universal income for the citizens. Fox News said that it came from the Democratic Party as another tactic to keep liberals on the hook. What relation does it have with the distribution of wealth from Saint Germain?

OWS: As we find it, no relationship whatsoever at this point. It is simply a use of monies that are available to be used in this purpose.

The Saint Germain Trust and many of the other Trusts and Global Accounts and all of this is all still in process and is moving to a realization, you might say, that is coming. But much more on that we cannot give at this point.

Q: [Emailed question] I recently asked my wife, Nan, who is a spirit, about materializing wealth, and she said that if I truly believed I had it, I would have bought an Audi, not a Suzuki. You also said the other Sunday that you don't have to create it because it is already there. Does that mean, if I only had one thousand Lira in my bank account and I bought a car for 200,000 Lira, that the money would appear because I believed I had it. Please, can you explain? As many people like myself are confused.

OWS: What we can tell you is, this is all about consciousness, all about raising vibrations. As you raise your consciousness and raise your vibrations, you move into a different understanding of how the Law of Attraction works. And the Law of Attraction is just that. You attract what you want. Or you attract what you are asking for, whether it is something negative or something positive. It is deep within your consciousness, and your consciousness comes out regardless and the Universe will listen to that level of consciousness that you are at in that point.

So if you believe, sincerely believe, fully believe and KNOW beyond any doubt that you can have what you want in your life, then you can have it. But, the question is, is there a bit of a doubt there? And if there is a bit of a doubt there, then you succumb to the three-dimensional illusion and the Laws within that illusion that keep you having what is called that "buffer zone." And that "buffer zone" will continue to work with your lower chakra centers and all of the memories and programming that is associated with that, and that will hold you back from this. So if you wish for something, say a car or some automobile of some type, and you believe you can have it, you can have it. But there needs to be that total belief system within you. That is how you can, and many of you will demonstrate this to those that are not yet awakened or that are not yet believers, you will be able to do those things which the Yeshua did. Those so-called Miracles. But as we have been saying to you, it is not Miracles, it is Science. It is just a Metaphysical Science or a Higher Consciousness Science. And you will be able to put your hand out and say that something can appear in your hand and it will be there. Not saying that an automobile will appear into your hand, but it can appear in front of you.

But the difference here is the ego center as well. And if your ego is requiring these things, then they are not going to come in that sense. They will not come based on the ego. They will come based on need of those that you are working with. Do you see the difference here?

Are there other questions here now from those in what you call the Phone Land?

Q: I saw during the meditation a vision that everyone was hugging each other, crying from happiness, and looking into the sky and it was full of ships. It was the disclosure! The disclosure is what the people saw, and they were hugging and being happy because they were seeing the ships. It was a bright day and people cried from happiness. So my question is, is this in the near future?

OWS: What you are experiencing is exactly what you were creating in your future. You were creating this to be a part of the expression that is coming and if more and more of you created this same expression, it would come to fruition much quicker.

If all of the 144,000 and even more than that now, as we find it, would come together and meditate all at once, this is the idea of the mass meditation and the ones that have called for these mass meditations. If you would reach the crescendo, as Sananda gives here, if you would reach that, then you would also bring about the Event much quicker here. And all of these revealings and all of this that is coming.

But regardless, these revealings are coming anyway. They are coming a little bit slower maybe than you would have wanted, but they are coming. The Storm is approaching, as Sananda gave here. And you are a part of the Storm. You ARE the Storm, you might say. Just as the President Trump said, "I am the Storm!"

That is what you are. You are the Storm. You are the ones that are bringing this all about. And if you want to bring it about faster, then simply create it being faster. Just as you did in your meditation here. Okay?

Q: I'm glad you brought that up about the tipping point, if you will, because it was on my mind. I participate with Jared Rand on his calls or mass meditations, and I did the Cobra mass meditation on that particular date, and Jared had said that there was something like 166,000 on that call, because he had also participated in it, but he was told that a tipping point had not been reached, and I was under the impression that 144,000 were needed. So I'm confused about that. Can you elaborate on that?

OWS: Yes! We can say that is why we said 144,000 plus. It has shifted. It has changed based on the number of the population of the planet, so that you need to come to that point, as you are saying, the tipping point, where you reached that percentage of the consciousness of the planet. And that has been reached at previous times, but in this past time, it was not fully reached here as we are finding it.

Q: Do we know what the number is?

OWS: We cannot give that number directly because it is a shifting number. It changes based on man's consciousness and based on those that are coming into the awakening state. We can tell you percentage-wise, you came to approximately 80% to 86%.

Q: My question has to do with children. All my life, I have been on a spiritual path, and the children always touched my heart so huge, it was almost overwhelming and to see anybody get hurt or fighting, I would have to jump in and stop. "Please don't hurt each other."

As time went by and the children were all getting kidnapped back in the early 1990s, I came up with an invention just to try to help stop this kidnapping, so that is how deep it runs for my protection over children.

Now here is my question. As time goes on, in these last few years with all the Ascension and everything happening, and doing all the Spiritual Work, I have noticed that my emotions and feelings towards the children isn't intense any longer and even almost dormant. I wonder why? What happened here? Because I could not handle hearing that children were getting hurt. And with all this disclosure, it is going to come out and I am aware of it. I've even tried to listen to some of the videos that they were talking about where they are saving these children already from the child trafficking, and it was very difficult for me to listen, but when I did, I was okay. So my question to you: Have I gotten through this or have I closed myself off?

OWS: This is what we were speaking about earlier in terms of how you are acclimating to the energies. You are becoming aware of those things which are going on in the background, and you are not becoming immune to it, but more and more you are becoming used to it. You are beginning more and more to understand the Oneness of all things. And that there is not a need to have the separation here. Because when you become aware for the first time of these atrocities that are going on in the world, it creates a separation process between you and everyone else. And you are coming into a unification within yourself. More and more you are coming to be unified with your multidimensional selves and your integration to your Higher Self, which is the Ascension process. So as you are going through this Ascension process, you are becoming less and less shocked, you might say, and less and less holding concern over those things. Okay?

Q: So it does look like [President] Trump is having some issues with the Mueller investigation and that that is all going to come out and be revealed about his misdealings. Can you talk about that a little bit and with National Inquirer being part of the media that is being exposed and all that?

OWS: All we can tell you is that this is all part of the whole as far as these revealings that are coming forward. The Truths are coming forward, and they are coming again from many different sources, many different directions, and all of this has been in the works for quite a while, you might say. In terms of not only years here, but decades this has been working in the background.

And those of what you call the White Hats, and the Alliance, have been working toward bringing the Light to the planet in many different ways and they are working together with the Galactics. And those of the Galactics and the Agarthans and the Alliance, which are all a part of ONE here, they have been working together to defeat or to subdue is a better word here, to subdue those of the dark forces that are left. And we can tell you that there are relatively few of those that are left that can have any kind of control over the situation of the planet. Otherwise, you would have many, many more catastrophes, many, many more atrocities attributed to the cabal, to those dark forces across the planet. But they have been curtailed greatly in what they can do. They do what would be considered more skirmishes here and there, rather than full out war of any type.

Q: About the resistance movement, Athena said to me that without you [“us Light Warriors”] anchoring in this Light, and then spreading this Light, they couldn’t do as much of a good job of what they are doing. They are like in the trenches but we are like the anchors of this conduit of this Light coming through this spectrum and without us, they would not be able to do as much good. We are the conduit. We are here for that particular reason to anchor in the Light and to spread the Light. So we are doing our part, and this is enabling them to do a better job to get this on track faster. Is that right?

OWS: Yes! Certainly. You are the Wayshowers. You are the ones that are bringing the Light, anchoring the Light, spreading the Light. Without you, you are correct, there would be even a much slower process that would be happening here.

In fact, without those of you, it would not be happening at all. This is why those of you have come to this planet to be a part of this evolution. To be here now in these moments when the Light is coming into the planet and you are able to share the Light further and further out, and help more and more and more awaken. Even beyond those of the under 144,000, to awaken. And this is the process that is happening now and You are the Storm, as was given earlier. You are ALL the Storm that approaches here.

Q: That’s right. That is exactly the way she explained it to me, but I was struggling to break it down. But without us, they cannot do their job. If there is no conduit, then the Light is cut off. So we are very, very important, and this is why they say this. We are very, very important for this whole process.

This thing with John McCain. Is he definitely passed on now or is he locked up somewhere?

OWS: What we can tell you is simply that he is no longer!

Q: May I refer back to the question about what is happening with the children? Is that what you were discussing many, many months ago? You talked about the need to reach the state of neutrality. So is that the position that she has reached at this point?

OWS: Not completely certainly, because if she was in complete neutrality, then that would be the full Ascension. But there is a movement toward more neutrality in your lives. All of you now as we speak here. You are all moving toward this which is the connection. The more full connection with your Higher God Self. And your Higher God Self is neutral. And as you connect more and more with your Higher God Self, you come more and more into that neutrality as well--knowing everything is working exactly as it needs to, exactly in the moment that it is in.

We are needing to release channel now.

As you continue on everyone, brothers and sisters, people--continue to hold the Light. Continue to anchor it, hold it, share it wherever you can, to continue to be the Light. As you continue to be the Light in every opportunity that you find, then you will find that the Storm that we are speaking of will become more and more with you, with you as the planet, with you as the people of the planet, the Collective Consciousness.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the One.
