

19.12.15 - ANCIENT AWAKENINGS – PREPARE FOR CHANGE

KaRa (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am KaRa. It is always my pleasure to be able to be here with you as an emissary from the Pleiadian councils, to be here with those of you, those of you that are forging ahead, moving ahead with light, with love, with consciousness, raising it everywhere that you can.

But first, you must continue to raise it within yourself. You must continue to find that remembrance within you of who you are, that you are so much more than the human being that you have been programmed to believe. That you are truly gods and goddesses with the Universal Source within you at all times, within all of us at all times.

For we are all one together. And we here in the councils, and the many councils beyond the Pleiadian fleet, all that are coming together that are working together to bring this momentous happening to the earth, to the solar system, and to this galaxy. All is at hand throughout our many council meetings now, and all of the preparations that have been ongoing. We know that we are nearing the end of all of these projects. We have been planning and planning, and creating and creating, doing everything we can—not to interfere in your affairs, but to assist in your affairs wherever we are able. We have been doing this. We continue to operate in this manner.

But as you know, we have been given much more permission to assist even more and more. And even though it is yet happening behind the scenes as far as you are concerned, know now that there is so much that is occurring and is about to come forward.

You have been seeing us more and more in the skies as you look up and, since you have those eyes to see, you have been able to see so much more, to see through the clouds, to see our ships when we appear and show ourselves to you. Even if it is only temporary and just a glimpse, we are there. We are here.

Everything is proceeding exactly as it need to in these moments. And as you move closer and closer to the next year and the beginning of a new decade, that new decade very well is the beginning of your new Golden Age. Everything that you have been working toward, that we have been working toward, is coming to fruition, is coming to a crescendo.

And it only remains for all of you, all of you that go before, that are the forerunners and the wayshowers to bring the Light, to anchor the Light and bring the Light to all of your brothers and sisters. It only needs to be for you to continue in these efforts. Even though there are times when we know that you say “enough, I cannot go on anymore, I cannot continue to see my brothers and sisters suffer everywhere.” To see the sickness, the dying. But even though you are seeing all of this, you are seeing beyond this as well.

You are seeing beyond the sickness, beyond the dying, beyond the illnesses, beyond the pain and suffering. You are seeing the love, the connection, the oneness coming forward. And that is what you all need to continue to focus on, not the pain and suffering and hurts and sorrow. But the joyfulness, the happiness, the love, the oneness, brining you and your brothers and sisters, and all of us together again.

We are so excited in these moments now. Because we know, as we continue to look down on your planet from above, we can see with our technology, we can see how consciousness is changing everywhere. How the lights are coming back on everywhere within all individuals.

Will some be lost? Yes. Some will not make it through the Ascension process. But many, many will, because it is their destiny, it is their choice.

Just as it is your choice to lead the way. And that is what you are all here to do: lead the way. To show, just as your Yeshua showed the way, you are here to do that as well. To be the Light. Yes, even to be the messiah to all those that are looking toward the Light in their lives.

Do whatever you can whenever you can to assist as many as possible in knowing that Light within them again, as it turns from just an ember to a flickering flame, to a roaring fire within each, a fire of consciousness, reigniting the flame of love throughout humanity.

I am KaRa, and I leave you now in love, and peace, and oneness, and the knowing that we will soon be reuniting again with all of you.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum. Greetings to you! One Who Serves here, and Shoshanna is standing by, here or, in this case, sitting by, here, as well. We are ready to go forward here. No message here unless Shoshanna has message directly.

Shoshanna (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell): No.

OWS: Very good, then we are ready for questions, here, your questions if you have any. Anyone there? You can now unmute your phones. We are ready for you.

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: Greetings, One Who Serves and Shoshanna. Back in 1970 I was initiated by Charan Singh Zima Harazh. And after the initiation, he said, “When we meet in the astral plane and you see my radiant form, I will be taking you all the way to the top to Satcom or Satlock (to the highest dimension there is) with blinders on,” he said, “and you can observe everything on the way down,” he said, “because you can get distracted in the astral, the omental, and the causal planes for centuries maybe even”(because it is so wonderful). My question is, do I have a contract with Maharaj Charan Singh, and is that one of the reasons why I don’t see anything inside, when it is just darkness for me? I am just curious about that.

OWS: When you say you are not seeing inside, what are you referring to, here?

Guest: Well, a lot of people, when they leave their body, they see the astral plane. I am still seeing darkness inside, and I’m just wondering if that has to do with my contract with Charan Singh saying that, you know, you are going to see everything on the way down. He takes you up with blinders on. So I'm wondering about that.

OWS: We ask you, when you are doing the visualization as being on the beach, do you see anything there?

Guest: Well, yeah, of course I do, yeah. My imagination is quite vivid. Yes, I can see, yes.

OWS: Then that is all you need to know. There is nothing more than imagination, here. Imaging in. That is what this all is. Whenever you are attempting to do more than simply use your imagination or your visualization skills, and expecting more, then you will become disappointed. But you must understand that your imagination and visualization is exactly what you need for your ascension process into the fifth dimension and beyond. See?

Guest: Yes I do, thank you.

OWS: Many of you are attempting to be able to see just as you see with your physical eyes, and that can be, it will be, but it is not necessarily the way it is in the very beginning. So you must come to understand that your imagination is real, and it is not what you have been programmed to believe as you grew up, thinking that, "oh, that is just my imagination," or your parents say, "that is just your imagination, it is make-believe." Well, what is wrong with make-believe? You see? Make it, and believe it. Do you see this?

Guest: Yes I do. Thank you very much, I appreciate it. Yes, I know that.

OWS: Make it, and believe it. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share on this. May we share our perspective on this?

Guest: Absolutely, absolutely.

Shoshanna: The experience that you referred to in your initiation does not reflect upon what you see now, it does not reflect upon that. What we find in the being personality that you have today, the Orv personality, is that you use your thinking process more than you need to. You perhaps use your analytical abilities, that are wonderful abilities when you need them. You cannot use that analytical ability when you are meditating or when you are experiencing any plane of consciousness.

The heart space, the heart is all you need. So once the heart opens and allows for the wonderful consciousness of mind to see clearly what is before you, then that will happen for you. So we would suggest that you continue to work on opening the heart space.
Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Are there other questions here? No more questions?

Shoshanna: There is one. We hear it. There is one wishing to ask.

OWS: And you must ask before you shall receive.

Guests: (Laughter)

Guest: Yes, hello, can you hear me?

OWS: Yes we can.

Guest: I have a question. It happened four or five years ago. I was helping our neighbor cutting trees. I slid, and I fell on my back. While falling, I felt hands grabbing me and smashing me on the ground. What happened to me at that time? I felt paralyzed for a few minutes when I was lying down.

OWS: Shoshanna, do you wish to add?

Shoshanna: May we ask a question here, Dear Brother?

Guest: Yes, sure.

Shoshanna: Are we hearing this correctly that you felt assistance as you moved toward the ground?

Guest: Yes. Some hands grabbed me and put me hard on the ground flat on my back.

Shoshanna: And you say that you felt paralyzed?

Guest: Yes for a few minutes.

Shoshanna: And then it was gone, correct?

Guest: Yeah, it went slowly less.

Shoshanna: And you were able to get up, correct?

Guest: Yes, slowly.

Shoshanna: And you feel no effects from this today, correct?

Guest: No, not anymore.

Shoshanna: Yes. So Dear Brother, we will share our perspective on this with you. What you experienced is you experienced those that watch over you. You experienced your guides, your angels, especially there are two that are with you always, that assisted you in this process. Because you have much to do, Dear Brother. You have many things to accomplish in this life, and you are doing this as a Lightworker. And the trauma that you felt was just to remind you to please be careful with this body that you must have to continue your work. It was just a reminder, you see, this paralysis that you felt temporarily, to not place yourself in an experience that could damage the body, as you need it.

We hope this makes sense to you, Dear Brother. And you are one that is completely watched over 24 hours a day. And those that watch over you feel your heart and your compassion and your love for all of humanity.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: And we find here that if not for those ones that were there to be your heavenly messengers here to assist you, it could have been much, much worse for your physical body here, as Shoshanna is giving. So, what is your saying, 'count your blessings,' here.

Guest: I felt the angels around me at that moment.

OWS: Yes.

Shoshanna: Yes. They are always with you, Dear Brother.

Guest: Okay, thank you.

OWS: Wonderful. Very good. Are there any other questions, here?

Guest: Hello. I just wanted to get some guidance. I have been feeling kind of guided to move, and I wanted to see if you could if that was a positive choice for me. The situation that I am in was a big vision, but it has just been such a struggle, and so I don't want to walk away if it is something I am suppose to complete. But I feel like there might be an easier way. So I just wanted to see if you could feel anything from that. Thank you.

OWS: I think at these times now as these energies continue to come in and consciousness continues to raise, and your frequency continues to rise as well, we would say that if there is a feeling of troubling or stress or these types of things that are keeping you where you are, then maybe it is time to not keep being there anymore. Now the words you are hearing within yourself, those whispers within yourself that maybe it is time for a change, that can be a move as you are saying, (and this is for all, here, not just for this one who asked this question), but in these times now it can be a geographical move, it can be a relationship change, it can be a job change, it can be many different things as you listen to that small voice within.

The way that you can tell if this is correct is everything tends to line up now. That was not always the case in your earlier years, because you needed to have certain experiences and obstacles to overcome. But we are finding more and more now not as much as what you had previously. So go with the flow, you see? If the flow is right for you, then you will know it. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: Yes, we wish to share our perspective with you, Dear Sister. May we share?

Guest: Of course.

Shoshanna: We would like to ask you a question. May we ask?

Guest: Yes.

Shoshanna: What is it that you wish to complete?

Guest: Well, we got this beautiful piece of land and we were going to build homes here, and it has just been kind of an uphill battle and so much stress financially and emotionally trying to co-create with other people.

Shoshanna: Well, we ask again. If we heard it correctly, you said, “I wonder if I should stay here because I have something to complete, or I may have something to complete.” So we would ask, as clearly as you can express this, what do you think you need to complete?

Guest: I just want peace.

Shoshanna: Yes, and you are not receiving peace at this time.

Guest: No.

Shoshanna: And you are, as we find it--we apologize for our directness, but as we find it, the personality that you are, the being that you are, is not structured to have this type of stress in their life. You are not, as the being that you are, the loving being that you are, you are not equipped to handle some of this craziness that you are experiencing, which is chaotic and crazy, is it not?

Guest: Yes.

Shoshanna: Yes. So we would tell you, you are correct that this experience that you are having is not what you wish to have. Therefore, you can stop it. You can move on. You do not have anything to complete, because all the things that you are speaking about are third-dimensional types of experiences that you do not wish to have anymore, you see.

Guest: Yes.

Shoshanna: We cannot tell you, One Who Serves cannot tell you, Shoshanna cannot tell you to do anything. But you do know the answer to this, my Sister, do you not?

Guest: I think so.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, you know the answer to this. Trust your higher guidance. Trust yourself. Find the peace that your being is meant to find, you see.

Guest: Thank you.

Shoshanna: Yes. Namaste.

OWS: And we would say here, and this is also for everyone, the saying is 'go with the flow,' not 'go against the flow.' Okay? Do you understand this?

Guest: Yes, thank you.

OWS: Very good. And there was another question?

Guest: My question, Sir, is I think it was two weeks ago, maybe it was around the 12/12 or right before it. I don't recall the exact date, but anyway, late at night when I do my service work for the Devine and for Mother/Father God for the whole, I go into conversation here and there, and I ask for certain things. So one of them was, 'I desire to see, or experience, to see the actual energies that are coming into Gaia right now onto us.' So I put that request out. That's what I usually do, I put a request out, and it does manifest, and pretty fast.

Anyway, the following day I am outside. The sun's out and I am looking directly in front of me. I just kind of like was staring in thought and started to squint my eyes a little bit, you know, just kind of brought them in a little bit. Then I saw (I usually see this when I do this) the whole environment went fluidity. I could see fluid. You know, it's like moving liquid, or something. It just felt different and looked different with my actual eyes. So anyway, right when that occurred, I looked beyond that fluidity and I started seeing, and was seeing, like very, very thin rain, almost translucent, rain just falling, falling, fall, real thin, but just horrendous coming down. Not violent, but very streaming, really beautiful. I was so shocked and amazed. I was so happy to have this experience, and I was saying, "Gratefulness, gratefulness! Thank you, with gratuity."

And it continued. So I tried to see it in other areas, and I would lose it. So I would go back to that one area, and there it was again.

So this went on for a few minutes, and I was very grateful for it. So I am asking you, was that our energy coming in? Or the waves, the Light?

OWS: When you spoke here, you were in a certain area, is that what you say, here?

Guest: Yes, it was showing me only in that area. It was right next to my garage door, actually. That is where I do my work, right inside that door.

OWS: It appears that you have been able to open a portal into other dimensional frequencies, here, and have a 'bleeding,' you might say, of dimensions coming together. Do you understand this?

Guest: I do.

OWS: That is what we see is occurring here. Since you have brought this up, Dear One, we would say that this is going to occur much more frequently, not only for you, but for others as well, as these dimensional barriers, we will say, continue to diminish more and more, here.

There will be more and more of this tendency of the dimensions to move together somewhat. Not to the point where it will be so disconcerting that you cannot handle it, but as you are becoming ready for this more and more, you will begin to see these energies and see this bleeding effect between the different dimensions here coming together. That is what we can tell you, here. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: Yes, we can share. May we share with you, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes.

Shoshanna: We find that the amount of energy that has accumulated in that area that you meditate, and the amount of Light, the denseness of Light that has accumulated in that area, has allowed you, and this is your work, this is what you have done, has allowed you to see pasts the veil, has allowed you to see that.

And, of course it manifests, because you are the one manifesting it, you are the one with the faith, and the love, and the believe, and the understanding to manifest this.

What we would tell you, if you choose to, is that when you see this, when you ask for this and you see this amazing experience, you can actually step through it. You can step through it, and you can feel not just what you see with our eyes, but you can reconnect with this experience through your heart, and experience it at a level that is not just visual, but is a complete experience, if we are explaining this correctly. You can step through it and experience it at a much higher level than just visually if you dare, because this will take some faith to do this. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you. Thank you very much.

OWS: Very good. Are there any other questions, here.

Guest: I would like to speak. Do you hear me?

OWS: Yes.

Guest: Thank you. I would like to get some feedback on a dream I had. It was very curious. Essentially, I was the observer, but also participant. Evidently, I had stolen something, and it looked like an electrical cord. So I was having some feelings around, some regrets or sorrow about doing that. Then a child appeared, and it was a little boy. So I felt like I had taken something from the child. So I was prompted to give the cord back, and essentially I moved out of the observer into another form of another child, and returned the cord and apologized and asked for forgiveness. I have never had a dream like that, and it is perplexing, so I am asking for some confirmation as to am I supposed to do some more forgiveness work of my inner self?

OWS: Shoshanna, do you want to begin, here?

Shoshanna: We do not quite have a bead on this dream. But we do find, Dear Sister, if we could share our perspective with you?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: That there is no forgiving needed. You do not have any more forgiveness work to do. You do not have that. You are a conscious being that has done that work, you see.

We see for a moment that the child, the boy that is represented in your dream, we see that it is your son, that you have on this earthly plane today. Do you see this for yourself?

Guest: Yes (tearful).

Shoshanna: This is your son, and there is no forgiving left. He has forgiven you, and you have forgiven him, you see. This is what the dream is about as we find it.

Guest: Yes. Thank you.

Shoshanna: Yes. Namaste.

OWS: Wonderful. Good. Would there be one more question, and then we release channel?

Guest: Yes, hi. Speaking of dreams, interesting. Around 4th of July, within a week of each other, I had a dream when President Trump was in my dream, and I was in the room with him, not physically, but ethereally. It was like we were communicating, and it was all very positive communication. Then when I got back from the Advance, I had a third dream also with him in it. This time in the dream, he was being very kind to me, it was different. Whereas it was more me with him before, and now it was him with me in terms of the communication. I am not sure what those dreams were. They felt very good, but I am curious to know more about those.

OWS: You are both Warriors of Life here together and working together for the same end goal, here, and that is to bring the Light to the world. Not only to this country, even though it appears that the President Trump is only interested in this country, that is certainly not true. He is interested in the entire world, and the connection of the collective consciousness of the world coming back together. Now you would not do it in that terminology exactly as you would, but you are both the Warriors of Light here, preparing and showing the way to many others to come after, here. This is your connection, as you were being shown here in your dream state. Shoshanna, anything to add?

Shoshanna: We can share one aspect of this, if we may share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Sure, yes, thank you.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, we see that this being that is in a high political state at this time, and you, who perhaps have never been political until now, you and he share a council together. At a higher level the two of you are on a council together, and if you wish to know more, you can continue to travel in the astral state of your dreams to see this. What you must know is that your heart and this one's heart is very connected at a soul level, and you are both on the same path of Light and enlightenment, as the One Who Serves has indicated. So we are just rephrasing it for this purpose. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you very much.

Shoshanna: Yes.

OWS: We were only going to take that one question, but we will take one more, and then this is final.

Guest: My question is (but I know the answer probably), I think that we have a portal in our living room because my son meditates in the living room and many times he feels different beings visiting us in that area, and I think it is from all this meditation he has done to open up the portal. The last time he couldn't see exactly the face of the being, but it was like an ocean moving, moving, moving. To me it is a message like Andromedan. I would like to know if this is a portal that opens up in our living room, as I feel it is.

OWS: As you have correctly indicated, you already have the answer there, because you have already given it. And yes, there is a portal that is opening there because of the energy release that is occurring there on a more regular basis. And again, as we always do, we direct this to others out there as well: when you are finding yourself in the same place over and over and over, your energy that you create there, whether it is through meditation or just your thinking process, visualization process, whatever it might be, when you are doing it in the same area over and over, then you are creating a portal opening that can actually become a visible portal to you. It can be in your mind's eye, but it can also be with your physical eyes as well, as you continue to acclimate more and more and more to these energies and become more and more a believer of your capabilities in working in these interdimensional aspects, here, which you are doing, and many of you are more and more beginning to do as well. Anything to add, Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We accept your explanation, and we do not have additional information.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Do you have any message you would give here at the end of this session before we close?

Shoshanna: We do not.

OWS: Very good. Then we will simply end with continue on, all of you, as you are doing, to continue to find the flow of energy within you and allow that flow of energy to take you forward more and more. Listen deeply within yourself. Listen to that small wee voice, those whispers that come to you. And if you do that, then you will find that you are on the right track, the right road. Even if it is seemingly come to be the 'road less traveled' for you. And if it is that, then that is also meant to be what it is for you. That is all we have. And Shoshanna has one message.

Shoshanna: We wish to share our perspective on this. We find that each being that enters this world is given a personality that is imbued with skills and talents and mental constructs that are part of that individuals' mission to fulfill on this planet to raise and uplift the consciousness of all. What we find is that, as One Who Serves has indicated in several sentences, this time to go with the flow if the personality that you have been given is trying to do something else, with that personality that does not fit with that individual's mission, you will find roadblocks. You will continue to find roadblocks. And many of you will go through those roadblocks and continue down a path that does not support the mission that you have been given, and you will find yourself not so joyous in those moments. So we would tell you that whatever your mission is, and whatever personality you have been given, you must honor that and listen to that, and know that if you are moving in the wrong direction and finding roadblocks, you must back up and go toward the mission that you have been given. Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the One.
