

ANCIENT AWAKENINGS – PREPARE FOR CHANGE
Sunday Call 19.10.27 (Sananda, OWS, Shoshanna)
James & JoAnna McConnell

SANANDA (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am Sananda. As always, it is a pleasure to be with you, to be able to share in these ways.

I want you to think now. I want you to think in terms of, for you have a term in your understanding, way of thinking, that is, you are coming to the home stretch. You are coming to that home stretch.

Or, as the James has given us as a possible analogy using the idea of Sports in a football game, you are in the fourth quarter of that game with only minutes to go. You have just scored the go-ahead touchdown. And the other side (that, of course, being the dark forces, here, the cabal) the other side is mounting one last ditch effort to be able to score and, if not tie, to go ahead. They have what's called a "Hail Mary," or one last play. They send the ball off hoping to score that last touchdown to win the game.

But as many of you know, Hail Marys, in this sense, are very seldom successful. This Hail Mary falls completely harmless. Because they cannot win the game. They have already lost the game. The game as you know it is nearly over.

It has been over for some time in the higher vibrations. The event has already occurred in the higher vibration. It only needs to be recognized now. Not in the third dimension, but in the fourth dimension, as those who are awakening across the planet, and many, many more are doing so. Many more, even beyond the Light community, but certainly those of the 144,000 of Lightworkers and Lightwarriors are all awakening or have awakened. That is the key, the key to bring about this final change, or the changeover. That is very close, now.

There have been other sources that have given a timeframe for the solar flash for The Event. Although we tend to not want to give those timeframes, one has come forward and has spoken of this. One that is quite accurate in many respects. He has shared. He has channeled information. He has spoken of the solar flash, The Event, happening in the Spring of the year 2020. And I, as Sananda, and all of those of the Company of Heaven, or what you call the Company of Heaven, are here to tell you now that that is a very strong possibility. A window of opportunity will open at that time. Certainly as the vibrations continue to increase, that time can even be moved up; or, it can be moved back. The Spring of your next year could bring about a miraculous changeover into your lives. And as you have heard many times, your lives will never be the same after.

I do not like to speak in terms of future or past. We prefer always to be speaking in the NOW moment. In the NOW moment, all of you are in the higher fourth dimension and in the fifth dimension when you find yourself in that NOW moment.

You continue to be in the now, continue to focus on the now, and you will find yourselves more and more not only in the fifth dimension more often. When the solar flash does happen, you will not only be ready for it, you will welcome it in a blissful state beyond anything that you have experienced before, a thousand times over, you will experience this.

But it is all up to you, each and every one of you, to continue to find those moments, or rather find the joy in every moment. Because when you are finding the joy in that moment, you have arrived at your destination that you came and volunteered to be here for.

It is true, there is never a final destination. The train always continues to move. You always continue to move on and on, continue to advance. That will never end, for YOU will never end.

You spoke earlier in your discussion of age and “the regression of age,” or “the renewing of youth” is a much better way of looking at it. Continuing youth. All of you have that capability to do so. It is within your mind.

It is within the programming that you came here with—not the programming that you have now, but the programming that you all came here with to continue on, to know that you are the source, the creator source within you. And as that creator source, there is no limit to what you can do, to who you are. When you come to realize that there are no limits to the being that you are, then truly anything is possible.

Then the belief begins to come forward. And even more than the belief, the knowing that anything is possible, including that of looking in the mirror, each and every day when you rise in the morning. And as you look in the mirror, you see that reflection of yourself. You see the reflection of who you want to be. That is the difference—the difference maker—for all of you. See the God Source as you look in that mirror. See the Light within you. See the love within your heart space. And the reflection that will come back to you now will be that God Source within you and will have the countenance of anything that you want it to be.

I am Sananda, and I leave you now in peace, and love, and harmony, and oneness, and joy, that you continue to hold those qualities within yourself in every moment as you continue to move forward now in the reality of who you are.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum, hum, hum. Greetings to you. One Who Serves here with Shoshanna standing by, or sitting by as we may say, here.

We are ready to answer your questions if you have some. First you need to, what you call, unmute your phones and then we can move on here, okay? Are you ready?

Guest: Yes. I was given a question by James, but I believe Sananda has already answered this for us. A gentleman or a lady had left a message about Cobra calling for The Event, and then the GCR to be released at The Event, or the solar flash, saying that it was already done on higher levels. But the person was asking what is the moment that we will know that we will see it. But I believe Sananda has already answered that, saying the Spring of next year. So, if you would wish to add anything, please go ahead.

OWS: The global currency reset [GCR], as you are saying, and the revaluation, and all of the many things that come in relation to this has, yes, already happened at the higher levels and is already in place, as we find it, to be brought out to the public when the ‘time’ is right for the public, and when the vibrations have increased enough to allow for this to come about.

This is, of course, a part of what more and more of you are understanding now of what is called the “quantum financial system.” And this will replace the current fiat financial system of the cabal of the dark forces that they have continued to attempt to hold onto, because this is their life, this is all they know, is the pursuit of money and the pursuit of power. But it is not going to be this pursuit of power anymore. It is no longer going to be the love of power. It is going to be the power of love.

And this is rapidly changing now. As Sananda has given. You are coming down the home stretch, or you are in the fourth quarter in the final minutes, and all of those things that have been given here, not only through this source, James, but through many other sources to understand not so much exactly the timing, but to know that it is in the works now, it is in process now. And very shortly you will begin to see the actual results of these endeavors that the Light Forces have been working on for some time, now. Shoshanna, anything you wish to add?

Shoshanna: (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell)
We have nothing to add, here.

OWS: Very good. Are there other questions, then?

Guest: Hello to both of you, beloved brother and sister. In my work with the children, I have been given recently (I think I have been given this, I don’t think I came up with it) but I think I have been given a curriculum to work with them from a perspective of behavior modification, but from a perspective of personal growth and really getting in there to shift some things that the kids may be carrying around with them. And I have also been channel-led to a curriculum for the adults. So I am going forward with this, and just seeing where either one of them may lead. But I am wondering, once that event happens, will we need such things? I mean, should we keep in motion going forward and see where it goes? Or will it be such an instant shift that we might not even need that?

Shoshanna: Can we share, Dear?

OWS: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: May we share our perspective with you, Dear Sister?

Guest: Definitely.

Shoshanna: We find that your heart is magnanimous, that you are a giver, that you wish for humanity to be uplifted in every moment in every breath. This is what we find in your soul and in your heart. So what we must tell you is the things that you are formulating to uplift these children and these adults are the precursor to high vibrations. These are the things that bring The Event about. These are the things that create higher consciousness in not only you, but in those that you wish to influence, and a confluence of events will culminate because of these things. Namaste.

Guest: Okay. Thank you.

OWS: We have nothing to add to that. Do you have another question, here?

Guest: Yeah, so just to say I feel like I am guessing then that even if I only work with a few it would go into the collective consciousness, correct?

Shoshanna: Yes. Of course. .

Guest: Okay. Because that's where it's been a little confusing to me, because how could you work with very many in that time frame.

But okay, the other question I did have was I am going to Mt. Shasta next weekend. I am wondering what words of wisdom do you have for my journey there. I have all my winter gear. Do you have words of wisdom for me, or anyone who goes to traverse the mountain or that kind of thing?

OWS: What we can tell you is to be yourself. Do not attempt to be anything but yourself. Be in the now moment whenever you can in this respect, in this situation that you will find yourself. And as you are in the moment and being yourself, then you will find that you are attracting certain types of energies that you would not attract if you were not yourself and in the moment. That is what we can tell you. We know it is somewhat ambiguous, but it is important that it be so at this time. Shoshanna, anything to add here?

Shoshanna: Yes, we can share. May we share?

Guest: Definitely, please.

Shoshanna: We find that this trek, this journey that you will embark on is a culmination of many things, and it is your destiny to do this. What you must give up or not pay attention to is your expectations. You must go with no expectations. Expectations are somewhat a way for a human to predict the future that you cannot predict. So we must tell you, as One Who Serves has told you, that connect with this mountain, connect with all that is there for you in the moment. Be alert in the moment. Breathe in the moment. But do not, and we caution you, go with great expectations of something else. All that is revealed to you and will be revealed to you is there for you, and you must go with that idea. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you. Beautiful. I appreciate that.

OWS: Very good. Would there be any other questions, now?

Guest: One Who Serves?

OWS: Yes.

Guest: Just adding to what was just being spoken of, with all the children being rescued at this time that were being held by the fallen ones down in the caverns wherever they have been finding them and rescuing them just recently, because there has been so much damage done to all the beautiful children, do the Benevolents have a huge part in this? Are they taking the children during their sleep into the healing chambers because there was so much devastation that was done upon them, or will they? That is my question. I am sure the Benevolents have a big part in this. Thank you.

OWS: What we can tell you is you have no concern here or worry here, certainly. Because all is being orchestrated. All is a part of the greater plan. And these innocent ones are well being taken care of, here, and will thrive as a result of being taken care of in this way. This is what we can tell you. They have been rescued, as you are saying, and many more so are yet to come, here, for this.

But these bases, these underground bases, are being cleared out one by one, one after another, and eventually they will all be so. It is all a part of the raising of vibration, the raising of consciousness, and the continuing of these waves of energy that have been coming in, which indeed are continuing to raise the vibrations and the consciousness across the planet. It is all a part of the whole of the greater plan in place, here. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share on this if you wish. May we share?

Guest: Yes, Dear.

Shoshanna: We would tell you that what we know of you is that your part to play, here, is to cast the light upon this, to raise the vibration in yourself and spread it to them. You are very good at this. You must, in your meditative state, cast upon the darkness the great Light that you are and know that your consciousness and your power to uplift all that is around you and beyond you is what you are here for. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Are there other questions here?

Guest: I have a question. I hope it's not too personal. Maybe people can get something out of it. My right eye has been really bothering me. I feel like there is something in it. I went to the eye doctor a couple days ago and she said it was just dry eye and to put drops in. I still feel like there is something in it. She couldn't find anything, and I want to know if maybe it's me not willing to look at something, or if there actually is a little teensy pebble or a little sand in there. Because it was windy and I was sanding things. Do I need to go to a different doctor, or just let it work its way out?

OWS: Shoshanna do you want to share?

Shoshanna: We can share on this. May we share?

Guest: Yes, please.

We find that the consciousness of the human creates the external result. You see, what you find is true in both areas. You are (and you know) hiding in some cases what you must see, and you are avoiding what you must see in some instances, as we all do, this is not just you. All humans are programmed in this way.

So we will tell you that we find that there is a bit of sand in your eye. There is something there and, if you continue bathing the eye, it will work itself out.

And, bigger than this, you must examine why you are affected in this way and begin to see what you need to see. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

Shoshanna: You're welcome.

OWS: Very good. Are there further questions?

Guest: I was wondering, there are so many different versions of The Event. The one I have been picturing is the benevolent wave of rainbow, I guess fog, or whatever. And then I hear people having these visions or people burning up and hellish type of events. Can you help me with this?

OWS: What we can tell you about this is The Event, the solar flash, will be experienced by everyone at the same time. And everyone will have varying experiences as a result of this.

Those of you that we have been working with, and that is beyond certainly this group only, it is the Light forces, the Lightworkers, Lightwarriors, the Light community, those of you are being prepared to be ready for this when it comes so that you experience the intense bliss that comes with this.

Whereas others who are not quite so prepared will experience not what you are speaking of, but they will experience some confusion, also some good feelings at times as well, and they will begin to wonder what is occurring here, what is happening? What is this? And that is when they will turn to you, those of you that are ready to be able to help them understand what is occurring.

Now there is another group that will experience this somewhat as you are saying, a hell of their own making, here. Not that they will burn up, as you are saying, but they will experience the full ramifications of these higher energies that are coming in that are mingling with their low vibration within them, which they will not be able to withstand. They will not be able to handle these energies within their central nervous system. So in that respect there may be some of what you are speaking of, but not as a great whole here, as we find it.

We cannot really say, though, exactly how it is going to be because, as we have said many times, we do not know how this is all going to transpire because it has never happened in this respect before in this way. So, we are doing everything we can to help prepare you to be ready for this, and to be able to assist those others who are not quite so ready for it as you will be. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: May we share?

Guest: Sure.

Shoshanna: Your concern for others is your compassionate heart at work. What we must tell you is that all have a path to follow, and all must follow the path to what their soul is required to do to raise in consciousness, you see. Sometimes these are difficult things.

What we would tell you is your job, if you wish to carry this out, is to see everything as perfect, to see everything as appropriate. To see everything as a way in which each human being is finding higher consciousness, and it is not up to you, it is not up to me, it is not up to One Who Serves or anyone to judge that or to decide that is not appropriate for them. So, you see, there may be things that you do not wish to experience, you do not wish to see, you do not wish that they would even happen. But we must understand that each soul is working out its path to higher consciousness. This is what we must tell you. Namaste.

Guest Thank you, thank you very much.

OWS: Very good. Are there any further questions? We will take one more and then we need to release channel if there is another question. Nothing further? Then Shoshanna, do you have anything you wish to end with, here?

Shoshanna: We must say that it is important in this time, in this moment, to work completely on a state of neutrality. To not judge if something is good, do not judge if something is bad, if something is not appropriate or appropriate, or this and that and the other, but to remain neutral and understand that each person, each being that is incarnated on this planet and all other planets, has done so to raise their consciousness, however small it may be, or however large the leap may be. This is their goal: that all individuals are working on their own path and their own consciousness, and we must work completely on not judging that, but remaining neutral. Namaste.

OWS: Very good. And we end here with we encourage all of you to do as Sananda has suggested here, and that is each and every morning, when you wake and you look in the mirror, to see the reflection that is coming back to you as the God source within you, and see in the reflection what you would want to look at, here. What you would want your body to be. But not only your physical body, but your astral and your etheric body within. See those changes there as well. As you change your astral body and your etheric body to resemble that which you would like it to be, then your physical body will change as a result of that as well. That is what we would suggest to you, and that is in preparation for those of you that will be attending the next Advance. That is all we can tell you on this, at this point.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the One.
