

2020.04.26 – OPERATION FREEDOM EARTH

KaRa

I am KaRa. I come at this time, in these momentous times that you are finding yourselves now. But it is certainly not by happenstance that you are here. It is not by accident that you are here. It is all a part of the greater expression of the plan.

You have heard ‘trust the plan.’ But it is so far beyond the plan that you are experiencing now here on the Earth. The ‘plan’ is the universal plan. And you have also heard that nothing can stop what is coming.

For right now in these moments you have heard that there is an operation occurring across the planet – “Operation Freedom Earth”. And that is exactly what is happening. You are becoming freed. You as the collective consciousness of this planet are becoming freed of all that has held you back for so long. All that has held the consciousness of man, kept you in the programming, kept you in the hold of the three-dimensional illusion for so long a period of time for so many lifetimes. But that is all coming to an end now.

For “Operation Freedom Earth” has spread across the planet. It is not only here in this country, but it is the world that is becoming freed. Much of it is still seemingly behind the scenes. But if you look for it, you can find the truths being revealed here and there, little by little. And that little by little, that trickle now that is coming through is going to become a flood of information, a flood of truth that will take you far beyond your wildest imaginations of what has been and what is now as well. For many of you have awakened. But you, even you, have not awakened to the full enormity of this entire operation across the planet and what it is taking to bring this about.

You have two groups here in a sense: ones that are being shown the truth by your president, by President Trump, as well as other leaders around the world that are giving the populous what they can handle at this point. But then there is that operation that is being operated by that of the Alliance, by that of the spokesperson of the Alliance, the Q, the one that you know, the one and the ones that you know as Q. And these ones are coming forward now and sharing to the ones that are ready for this. For the ones that are reaching to the light and the ones that are ready for the truth.

Many have said you cannot handle the truth. But you can. All of you can handle the truth. And it must be brought forth. It must be revealed. Everything must come through disclosure. Disclosure of all of us that are working diligently with those of you here on the planet. We are right there with the Alliance. And right there with all of you, which are the ‘boots on the ground,’ all of you, are doing everything that you can, whether it is out in front and showing to the world, or whether it is behind the scenes and doing it within your meditations, your personal meditations. But certainly when you come together as a group, as a large group, in the millions, and you come together as a meditation of the collective consciousness of all of man here on the planet, you are bringing so many changes and so many shifts of consciousness here.

For the Light is winning. The Light has already won, and it cannot be stopped at this point. Ascension will go on. Ascension is going on right now. You are in the throws of ascension. You are in the very process of ascension right now.

Have you all ascended? No, you have not, because you must match the vibration of Gaia to do so. You must match her vibration and all of life here on the planet must match that vibration. For she will not hold the vibration, the low vibration, much longer. And, in order to ascend with her, you must raise your vibration in every way and any way that you know to do.

Utilize all of the tools that you have been given whether it is crystals, or whether it is simply going out in nature and finding the beauty, seeing the beauty, seeing all of life around you as you find yourself sitting by a stream and you know that the consciousness is all around you and in you, and you touch the water and you can feel that consciousness. All of you can do that right now. You don't have to wait until after you have ascended.

You can feel the consciousness all around. For it is all around and in you. The Source of all of this universe is within every being here on the planet, whether it is human, whether it is extra-terrestrial, whether it is animal, plant, or mineral. All is in that consciousness. All is a part of the one, and all is one within the all. So allow for this to continue to move through you in every moment that you find the consciousness that you can slip out of that programming, move beyond it.

You have heard before 'forgive, forget, move on.' And that is such a wonderful expression. Such a wonderful affirmation to use each and every day. For you must forgive. You must forgive everybody everything that has ever done anything to you. And you must forget. You must forget about all of the past hurts, the past travails. You must let all of that go. It will not become or will not be a part of you in the new higher vibrational expressions. It cannot be. So you must forgive, you must forget, and you must be ready to continue to move on and be in the moment.

And as you are in that moment, you are creating the very perfect future that you are looking for. But not only as just yourself, but as a collective, as a collective consciousness coming together. You are creating the New Golden Age each and every moment. Each and every thought is doing that. And if you remember that, if you consciously become aware of that in every moment, then the New

Golden Age Of Gaia will be upon you before you can even know it, before you can believe it.

It is here now. And it just needs to be brought into expression. But it has to be brought into expression as a collective. And that is what you, all of you, the Light-workers and -warriors, are working toward: to bring the Light into the collective consciousness. You have been anchoring it for so long now. Now it is time to release the anchor and spread the Light wherever you can, as much as you can. But do it only with those who are ready for it. And as you do, and as they become ready for it, then all of life, all of the collective consciousness, all of life here on the planet will raise along with it.

You have so much to look forward to in these moments. So much to look forward to beyond the seeming travails that are appearing now. And we say, 'seeming.' I say 'seeming,' because that is exactly what it is. It is only negative if you allow it to be. But it is also very positive if you allow that to be as well. For yes, there are those that perish. But have they not perished for many, many lifetimes. Many of your loved ones in many of your past lifetimes have perished. You yourselves have perished many times. This is only another time that you come together now. And it is all part of the greater expression of the whole. And if you look at it that way, if you feel it that way, then you will allow for this expression, this viral expression now, to run its course, and run its course, it shall. And even now, in these moments that I speak, it is already running its course. So it is time now to break free from the shackles that have held you all back for so long. Break free from it and become free.

I am KaRa. And all of this that is happening now, again, is happening for a reason and is part of the greater plan. So let yourselves now know that you are a part of this greater plan.

Peace and love be with all of you.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum.

Greetings to you! One Who Serves here. Shoshanna here. We are ready to continue this process.

We have no message to give here, for that was quite a message from your Dear KaRa. And we say ‘Dear KaRa,’ because so many of you already know her. So many of you already have a connection with the Pleiadian Emissaries that are here with this planet now with all of you to bring you news, to bring you new, higher expressions of love. And that is what she and all of those that are working with the Alliance here on the planet, and you all a part of this Alliance. You may not be a part of the direct operation, which is called ‘The Alliance,’ but you are all a part of it as the ‘boots on the ground,’ as you have heard of.

So we are ready now for your questions. Do you have questions for One Who Serves and Shoshanna?

Guest: Yes. I have a few questions that were given to James via the e-mail. The first comes from a man who is asking if it is true about the COVID virus that would be back in the Fall of this year. And he also describes it then as being ‘apocalyptic time,’ and could you define what ‘apocalyptic’ would mean to us.

OWS: First of all, yes, we will define what ‘apocalyptic’ means, and it is not what you have come to understand from your biblical expression, and all of this. It is simply something that is hidden, something that is becoming unveiled. The truth that is being unveiled. That is the actual definition of apocalypse. It is not destruction. It is not calamities. It is not the end of the world and end of life as you know it. It is not that at all. It is the revealing. It is the unveiling of the truths that are leading to a great change. And that is the apocalyptic idea, here. You are being led or leading yourselves to a great change, a great shift in consciousness. And with that shift of consciousness, all that has been hidden will now be revealed, you see? It will all be unveiled. That is the actual definition.

As to the first part of that question, the virus, the COVID-19 virus, that is not something that is going to continue. Will it come back? Possibly. But not in the understanding that you have known it at this point. It is simply a virus. It is simply something that the humanity is learning to deal with, just as it has learned to deal with other viruses, your colds, your flu viruses, all of these things.

But what has occurred is purposeful as a part of the Great Plan. The ‘trust the plan’ as your Q has said. As many have said, here. Trust the plan. Because it is all a part of the greater expression of the universal. Not only the plan here for the Earth, but the universal plan that is in the works, here. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell):

We can share in this. We will share.

The first part, which One Who Serves has eloquently given, we would ask one thing: that when you hear the term ‘apocalypse’ you replace the term with ‘revelation.’ It is a great revealing, as One Who Serves has given, and this is the true meaning of this word. What has occurred in your world by those humans that are much on the dark side, they have caused this word to mean something dark, so that when you hear it, you are programmed to believe something sinister is occurring. It is a program! When you do your research, this word, 'apocalypse,' is a Greek word. It originates in Greece in the Greek language meaning 'revelation.' So, once again, you must simply replace that word with 'the great revealing' or 'the great revelation' when you hear this.

The second thing is there is a great program going on again to convince humanity that in the Fall of your year 2020 there will be another occurrence of this virus, so be very afraid! This is being marketed to you heavily, and it is false! You must understand it is a program by those dark human beings that wish to terrify you.

What is true about a virus, and we would ask you to do your research on this, is that a virus really never goes away. It lives among you. It lives on you. It lives in you.

The only time a virus strikes is if your immune system cannot fight it off. What we will tell you is do everything every day to be happy, to be joyful, to raise your vibration, to bring in the light and then shine the light wherever you are, raise your appreciation and gratitude for everything, and your immune system will respond in kind, and you will never be sick, you see. This is what we have to share. Namaste.

OWS: Wonderful. Would there be other questions, here.

Guest: Thank you. Yes, this man also has another question here about mentors. When will they be introducing themselves to Lightworkers, and how would they come into our life?

OWS: They are already here. We are already here. We have been here for a long time, now. Just open your eyes and see. We are here. We have been here.

We are not going anywhere until this ascension process is over. So if you wish to see us, open our third eye and we are there. And we are just a whisper or a touch on your shoulder away from many of you. And all of you, when you ask for it. Shoshanna, anything to add?

Shoshanna: We can share. We would like to share on this for all that wish to hear this. The greatest mentor that you have is your own Higher Self. That once you are open to this and you are listening, as you are always connected, but you are not always listening, the Higher Self that is the divine guidance that you all seek is readily available to you always in all ways.

We also wish to say that mentorship is in the eye of the beholder, you see. So as you progress as a being, those that will mentor you show up in your space to mentor you. Again, you must recognize this. As One Who Serves has said, mentors are always here. They are everywhere. You, as a being, must attract that mentor based on your higher guidance and understanding. Namaste.

OWS: And we add here that if you wish to be able to see us with your physical eyes associated with your third eye, then you need to raise your vibration. We have told you many times: we will not come down to your vibration, except in only certain circumstances; you must raise your vibration to come up and meet with us, and meet with your Higher God-Self, and so on, and so on. So if you want to see us, then do what you need to do to be able to do that.

And we promise you, in the times coming, and even right now if you do so, you can be able to be in our presence and physically be there with us. And many actually have. They have done so in their dream state, they have done so in their meditative state, and some even have done so in their physical awakening state as well. Okay? Are there any other questions, here?

Guest: Thank you. Yes, there is one more here from the e-mail from a woman who asked about food replicators. How will all the nutrients be in the replicated food. How will they know what nutrients to give us?

OWS: First of all, it is not so much a how, it is that it will be, and is. The replicators, as you are referring to, this higher consciousness technology at this point, is exactly that. It is higher consciousness. And with higher consciousness, would you think that there would be those ingredients within the foods that you eat that would harm you? Certainly not. If it is higher consciousness, then it is exactly that. And it is being drawn from the life force all around: the life force being from the sun, the life force being from the Earth, and all of this comes together. And the nutrients within this is so much higher than what you even begin to have, even when you do your organics, and all of that now. It is nothing like what you will have, as the ingredients come directly from life itself. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We do not add to this. That is perfect.

OWS: Would there be any other questions, now?

Guest: I have one.

OWSD: Yes?

Guest: Greetings, Shoshanna and One Who Serves. This is a two-part question on the same topic. Would you kindly explain to us what is going on behind the scenes with China. We know Chinas has their own secret space program, like the U.S. does. They have a type of space fleet like we do. Is theirs more advanced than ours? Are they equal? And what is going on with them posturing in the China Sea with the American ships there. And they are also seemingly ow intimidating Japan on their coastline.

Shoshanna: We will share.

OWS: Yes. Shoshanna wishes to start this. Yes.

Guest: Yes. Thank you.

Shoshanna: Dear Brother, we would like to share our perspective with you. May we share?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: The country of China is multi-faceted, just like most countries are. There are those that wish to uplift humanity, and there are those that wish to control humanity. This is a dark and Light fight that goes on, on your entire planet. China withholds billions of people. It is more prevalent to see what they are doing because the Light is shining upon them through many things that are occurring in your world today. We will tell you that those that are being aggressive, those that are doing things to downgrade the freedoms of humanity are those that are of the dark forces. The China people also have those that are the Light forces. They wish to uplift. So you will see a battle going on there, just like there is a battle in most countries for Light and dark. This is what we can explain to you that it is typical for the duality of your planet, you see. Namaste.

OWS: We also add here that the Alliance, as you have come to understand it, is made up of all of the countries of the world, people from all of the countries of the world. It is a great world alliance, or Earth alliance, here. And it is also populated by those that have come from the stars, that are in the ships from the Pleiadians especially here, and the connections that they have with those here on the Earth. So it is a conglomeration of millions and millions and millions of soul beings here on the planet. So China is just one of those, as Shoshanna has wonderfully given, both the dark and the Light forces there.

Shoshanna: We wish to share one other aspect that we would like to share, here. We apologize for interrupting. May we share?

OWS: Oh, yes, please.

Shoshanna: The secret space program that you are interested in, that many are interested in, is global. It is not just the Chinese. It is global. Which means that the secret space program that the Chinese people are running, so are the U.S. people running; so are the German people running; so are the Russian people running. They are all working together in this program.

And what we find is that within the secret space program is also Light and dark. There are those that wish for great things to occur for humanity and space exploration, and there are those that wish to control humanity within that same program. When your third-dimensional consciousness gives up duality, or gives up Light and dark, and becomes one with itself, it will no longer be the experience of so much chaos in these programs. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Are there other questions, here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: Last week I asked a question, and it was about in my childhood and healing. But before, when we were doing the meditation, I got a really bad cramp in my upper right back, so bad that I had to stand up and move around in the middle of the meditation. I was wondering if it had anything to do with the question I was getting ready to ask and, if so, how are they related?

OWS: We would say first ask your question, and then we can tell whether there is a relation or not. But certainly that which you are speaking of as an ache there, when you are doing these types of meditations and these experiences we will say, even beyond simply a meditation, you are experiencing the connection with your Kundalini energy, and that rising of the Kundalini energy. And it is happening because it is necessary to happen in that moment. It is not something to be afraid of, or anything of this nature. In fact, it is exactly the opposite. It is wonderful because it is happening, even maybe at an unconscious level, and that can be very helpful if it is the right moment for it. And certainly when you are doing these meditations with all of the guidance that you have here, and all of those that are assisting in this process, it is a very safe and beneficial process that you are doing. Okay? And now your question?

Guest: This happened on the last weeks' call before I asked the question about my childhood and healing. So just didn't know if it was related to the question I asked last week about having an abusive childhood.

Shoshanna: May we share?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Many beings on this planet have trapped energy in their bodies. They have trapped stresses from emotions that have not been released. So they attempt to release themselves. So you will feel pain here, you will feel pain there. You will feel a headache. You will feel a backache. You will feel a neck ache.

And these are many times trapped emotions and trapped stresses which are controlled through three things:

(1) Do many stretches. If you are not participating in a program such as yoga or stretching, you will not be able to at the physical level release these stresses. So that is one.

(2) And you must begin to mentally see a different story occurring in your life, and that whatever occurred in your childhood was for the betterment of you, for the development of you, and you chose this. You chose this path. And you must then recognize that as a being of Light. And as a being that wishes for higher consciousness, you chose that path. And accept it without stress. Accept it, acknowledge it, and be grateful for it. I know this is difficult, but that is what we are asking you to do.

(3) The third thing is to transform your emotions, those emotions of fear, those emotions of criticism, those emotions of negativity of any kind. You must attempt in every way at a conscious knowing level to choose to neutralize them. This takes work! So do not fear any discomfort in your body, as it is just simply explaining to you that you have some trapped stress and you must release it.
Namaste.

OWS: Yes. This is where the forgive, forget, move on comes in here very strongly.

Shoshanna: And stretch.

OWS: Yes. Certainly utilize the gifts that you have, the tools that you have, to help alleviate these stresses and these energy blockages there. And stretching, yoga, Martial Arts, all of these types of things, meditation, of course, all of these things can assist in that process.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Would there be other questions, here?

Guest: Yes, Dear Ones. I have two-part question here. I have been reading The Law of One from Ra. One thing is that he keeps referring to fourth density. And I hear us saying we are going into the fifth dimension. But what he is speaking of is fourth density. It really sounds like the fifth dimension, and 'the harvest' being our ascension. So that was one part of the question to sort of clear that up between the fourth density and fifth dimension.

And the other part is that we were told, and you also told us that our Higher Selves is our future self from the sixth dimension, or manifested from the sixth dimension back to us. And that is surprising me, because I always thought my Higher Self was the creation I came from, and I thought 'aspect creating aspect, creating aspect with my Higher Self and my Higher Self.'

So this brings up the question (now I'm confused on the other end). How are we developing to become the beings on the Earth if it's not from Higher Self? How is it happening?

OWS: What we can say here as to the second part of your question, we can say that there are many levels of Higher Selves, as you are saying, here, many aspects. And each level of Higher Self puts down another level of itself which becomes the Higher Self of the next one that is put down, and so on. So all of this is a part of the greater whole. All of this is a part of the greater expression coming originally from the Great Cosmic Source of this universe.

So we do not quite understand your exact question, here, as to give a more direct answer. Please be a little be more specific in your question.

Guest: Well, if it is Higher Self putting down Higher Self, putting down Higher Self, how is it that our Higher Self is coming back as The Law of One says from the sixth density, like as a future self—that's what he seems to indicate. Is that wrong? Is that incorrect?

OWS: It is not so much wrong or incorrect, it is just something that is not necessary for you to be concerned about at this point because the understanding will come as you raise your vibration.

If you attempt to understand these types of things in your third-dimensional consciousness expression, it will be very difficult to do so because you are coming from that frame of mind, and also from that programming within that illusionary expression.

So if you let go of that and just let it be, everything will work its way out, work itself out as you continue to move up in expression. And when you do move up in vibration, then the answer to this question and all of the other questions that you have will all become perfectly understandable at that level, you see? So you are attempting to understand something before it is even able to understand it. Only parts can be given, here.

Shoshanna, maybe you can give us some more understanding, here.

Shoshanna: We can share our perspective on this. May we share?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, once again you have asked a multi-faceted complicated question where there is not one answer to it, you see. There are perspectives to the answers, and there are perspectives to your question. What you have been reading is the perspective of the beings known as the Ra Collective that gave their perspective and their experiences through the channel which were extreme wisdom and most cannot understand what they were even saying. So it is a perspective, you see. The truth is multi-faceted and is individualized in this case.

So what we will tell you about Higher Self is that the being that you are, the being that others are, the Higher Self that connects to that being is the Higher Self that has accumulated the wisdom and understanding that the being that you are, or anyone else is, has the ability to comprehend and understand and stretch to that understanding.

As you accumulate wisdom and understanding, and dimensional height, we will say, dimensional expansion, the Higher Self that you have now will most likely be replaced by another. You as a being have great lineage, and there are many aspects of you that can participate as your Higher Self.

The one that we speak through, JoAnna, she has asked us, Shoshanna, to participate with her, and it took her a very long time to even realize who we are, and that we can speak through her, and our understanding, and our wisdom, and our accumulation of experiences have been chosen by JoAnna because we most match her highest vibration, you see. It is complicated.

You could have a fifth-dimensional Higher Self. You could have a sixth-dimensional Higher Self. It depends on your achievements. It depends on your consciousness, you see.

We hope that explains it. Does that help?

Guest: Yeah, well yes it does. Like you said, it is just a very complicated thing. So I can see that we have different...but can you just tell us a bit about the fourth density/fifth dimension incongruency?

Shoshanna: Yes. We will attempt to give our perspective. The density that is spoken of by the Ra Collective describes the characteristics of a dimension. What a density refers to is the experiences and characteristics that you will have within that dimension. The dimension is the construct. The density are the characteristics and experiences that you have on that dimension. That is what we have to share. Namaste.

Guest: Okay, so, I think then that the fourth density is happening in the fifth dimension, then is that correct?

Shoshanna: The fifth dimension has the collective experiences and the collective characteristics of the fourth dimension within it, and plus others, you see.

Guest: Okay. Thank you.

Shoshanna: Does this make sense?

Guest: It's very complicated, very confusing, but okay. I'm trying to grapple with it and take it in. I appreciate it.

Shoshanna: Namaste.

OWS: Very good. And wonderful explanation, Shoshanna. Wonderful perspective, there.

Shoshanna: Would there be any other question? We take one more question, and then we will have to end channel.

Guest: I am wondering, lately a lot of sources I read have been revealing information on rays that they work for or with, and I'm wondering if you could give me information on which color ray I should be focusing on, or which master of what ray I should be asking for guidance.

OWS: That is something that we cannot give to you at a personal level, here. That is something you must go deep within yourself, and ask within yourself the answer to that. And it will come. And then you will know the connection as to those of the guides that are with you and working with you, and the ray that they are associated with as well. The ray of consciousness here, we speak of.

Guest: Okay. Thank you.

Shoshanna: We can share.

Guest: Alright.

Shoshanna: May we share our perspective here?

Guest: Yes, ma'am.

Shoshanna: Dear Brother, we find in your mind that you have already chosen a ray. That you are attracted to a particular ray of consciousness, or a particular color. You are already attracted to it. Is this not correct?

Guest: This is true.

Shoshanna: So go with that. Because your Higher Consciousness is directing you in that direction. We cannot be definitive, but you can, you see. So go in the direction that you have been given. Namaste.

Guest: thank you.

OWS: Very good. Now we need to release channel. Is there anything, Shoshanna, you wish to share here at the end of this call?

Shoshanna: We do not have a specific message, but we will ask that all that wish to raise in vibration find the neutrality in everything, find the zero-point, find the neutrality, the zero-point within your heart, and let your heart guide you, not your brain. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

And we close with this: You have been hearing for some time now that you are in a storm, and you are in the eye of the storm and to remain calm within that eye of the storm. And for the most part, most of you have.

And we would say now that you are going to come out of that eye of the storm. You are going to come into the other side where the storm will continue to rage. Not in the sense that you understand it though now, thinking in terms of something negative, something that is catastrophic—not that at all. You are going to come out of it, and come into a more understanding of what has been held back from you. The revealings that are coming. That is what you are going to come out into.

And in many respects, you will need to continue to keep your seatbelt fastened because this could get a bit rocky, even for those of you that believe that you have quite a bit of information already and knowing, and that you've already awakened. Well, you have not completely awakened yet. That is all we can say here.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.
