

"What Can I Do To Make A Difference? Whenever You Ask That Question The Answer Comes".

Sananda, Archangel Michael and One Who Serves as channeled by James McConnell

These messages were given during our first Sunday-of-the-month Blog Talk Radio broadcast from our weekly Sunday Prepare For Change group in Phoenix, AZ on October 1, 2017

Zoe: Well hello everyone and welcome to our inaugural Ancient Awakenings call on BlogTalkRadio. Well, actually it's our re-inaugural BlogTalk show, because, as you'll remember, for years the show was hosted by our beloved Anne DeHart who's been trying her very best to retire. But every time we need her, she graciously keeps coming back - and this time it was to help us with our independent launch.

So while we'll never think of BlogTalk without thinking of her, she gets to ride in the limo for a change while we wear the driver's cap. I believe Anne is on the phone right now with us and she is welcome to pipe in whenever she wants. But Anne, just know your mic is hot so keep yourself muted.

My name is Zoe. I'm your call facilitator. My co-host is the lovely Rita, (easily recognizable by her delightful laugh!) ... and who we also know as Pallas Athena.

The dateline for today is Sunday, the 1st of October 2017. And we've been learning that numerology, astrology, light and sound healing, and all the other natural or ancient sciences will be taking an ever-increasing role in our lives from here on in. And Rita, who's been a teacher of numerology for the past 40 years, is way ahead on this game, apparently coming by it naturally. She recently explained to me that Pallas Athena developed numerology and taught it to the Greeks.

Rita is also an astrologist, musician, artist, spiritual counselor, and a host of other things, as well as Anne's close friend. And since Anne gave us a personal introduction some time ago, I can now call her my friend as well. So Rita, what can you tell us about today's date. Does it imply something auspicious?

Rita: Yes, can you hear me?

Okay. [singing] "This love light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine. This light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine. This love light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine. Let it shine, all the time, let it shine."

Greetings! I am so proud to be here. I don't know if I'm coming out clear or not.

So greetings everyone. I'm glad to be here today and I'm very honored and I know you're letting your little love light shine too because the higher beings are saying this: we're beaming here on this Earth.

And so I would like to go in to our magical number today. And that number, I will say later but first I would like to give a definition of what numerology is ... a little one. For those who do not know numerology is the belief in the Divine mystical relationship and relationship between a number and one or more deciding events. It is also the setting of the numerical value of the letters in words. So our alphabet really has a number; each one. And those numbers are associated with the life that we have, even why we're here. And it is of the occult. Numerology is part of the occult which means 'hidden'.

And let's take the numbers for instance you all. Just think for a moment. We have quantity which is $2+2=4$ and $4+4=8$, and $6+6=12$ and so on and so on.

But we have the quality of numbers, too, and that is what we are talking about. It's the numbers, the abstract side that we don't see of the numbers. And that's what numerology is.

Now I would like to say that when we ... the Bible has told us to know ourselves. "Know thyself." And I know Mother/Father/God would not leave us here without some tools to help ourselves know who we are. And so we have all of these tools. Astrology also is in combination, and those are all with numerology, and even the tarot cards go along with the occult.

Numerology goes from 1 to 9 with the alphabet and then goes back up to 1 again. Which would be let's say A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J; then J would be 1 again. So all the 1s in numerology in the alphabet would be A, J, and S. And a one (1) is what we're going to talk about today.

Now just think. What date is today? Today is the 1st of October. Well, was that planned? I don't think so. I think we were told to have this show on the 1st of October because it is a 1.

Now let's take October. We have 1 and we have 10. We drop the zero in numerology when we have compound numbers which are the two added together like 2+3 are 5 and so on and so on and so on. Then we have the 19th of the month. That makes a 1; 9+1 makes 10. Then we have the 28th of the month. That's 8, 9, 10 [counting 8+2=10]. That's another 1.

Well! Then we have October, that's a 10th month. We drop the zero. That's a 1. And then by my surprise we have 2017 and that makes a 1, [1+] 7, [=] 8, [counting +1=] 9 and [counting+1=]10 and remember we drop the zero.

Now look at the 1's in October. Does that mean something to you? Maybe it might bring up some thoughts. What is going on? Well 1 represents new beginnings! So here we have the show started today, that's a new beginning.

Then we have all these ones in here. What do you think is going to happen this month?

Well, if you take all the ones that we have here and I added up -- and this is me now. It doesn't mean it goes with numerology. But I had counted six ones and six in numerology is ruled by Venus and it means love. Oh, so that gives me an idea. Possibly ... well we already have a lot of love going on of course but this is something to really think about. Something big is going to happen this month. What do you think? And you know what? I just want everyone's love light to keep shining like they are. And I want to say until next month I shall see you. Bye for now.

Zoe: That was lovely. Thank you so much Rita. And don't say goodbye as in go away just hang on there. So to let everybody know how this usually works. James will start off by leading us into a guided meditation and then once he gets us situated typically Sananda steps in to take over the meditation as he's now taking a more consistent part in guiding our group. After the meditation we move right into channeled messages.

Rita are you still there? Would you mind introducing who we expect to hear from.

Rita: Okay. We are to hear from Sananda who we know as Jesus also and that is his higher name. And also Archangel Michael will be coming through today.

Zoe: And both are coming through James McConnell.

Rita: Right.

Zoe: Okay. And then of course we'll be joined by none other than the inimitable One Who Serves. They'll be here to give us guidance, they'll answer our questions, and they'll try to crack us up.

Just so you know, One Who Serves is actually a collective of ascended beings who choose not to be individually identified, hence, The "One" Who Serves. But after you get to know them, it's pretty easy to tell them apart.

So again, welcome everyone to Ancient Awakenings-Prepare For Change first-Sunday-of-the-month Blog Talk re-launch... and here's James, our illustrious founder. It's all yours.

MEDITATION with SANANDA thru JAMES

Let's get into a nice quiet state; nice and relaxed. Find yourself in a sitting or laying down position something that allows you to let go. And get into a nice even breathing; breathing in through your nose and out through your mouth. Rhythmically, gently. And as you breathe in, hold that for just a few seconds. And then let it all out and again hold it for a few seconds before you take the next breath. So you're centering yourself now and you're allowing yourself to relax into your breathing.

Now as you are breathing in, breathe in a Golden White Light and see that light moving into your bloodstream and energizing the elements of your blood and your blood carrying those energized particles throughout your body so that your body is filling with light. Light is always the protection that we need whenever we leave our bodies. Also know that you are the light. Put all of your attention now at your heart center your fourth chakra and as you are aware of your fourth chakra be aware of all the seven chakras: the three above, the fourth, and the three below. And with their respective colors as well as the respective spinning that the chakras do. And see the Earth's chakras, all seven chakras now aligned and with the colors becoming very brilliant. Whatever colors they started out as, brighten them up. Make them more brilliant. Increase the intensity of the colors as well as the spinning of the chakras. If you see especially the lower ones spinning rather slowly speed them up with your mind. Simply visualize them speeding up.

Sananda: (at this point Sananda takes over the meditation) Now be aware of an energy coming from high up above all the way up from the Galactic Central Sun. So just visualize what the Galactic Central Sun would be like and an electric blue light emanating from that Sun coming down into our solar system through our sun and into all of the various beings, the celestial beings that are here and above our planet, out in the solar system, in the galaxy. And see the energy coming through all of them and then down to the Earth, and down through the top of your head. This electric blue light coming down through the top of your head now shooting down through your body, through all seven chakras, all the way down into the Earth, to the core of the Earth and then back up again from the core of the Earth back up through your physical body, your etheric body, your astral body. All the way back up to the Galactic Central Sun. So your body now, all your bodies now have two pillars of light moving through them; one from above and one from below. You are the anchoring of that light.

Now find yourselves moving up into that pillar of light. Moving up higher and higher up into the sky until you find yourself high above the Earth looking back down at the Earth, seeing the beauty in the Earth, the pristine Earth. Gaia, herself. And also you're just above the Christ Consciousness Grid. It is a grid of energy, a grid of Christ energy that surrounds the Earth. Most are unaware of this grid but yet it is here. When what has been used to filter the energies in the past down to the Earth. Because to have these energies come fully into the Earth would have been too much. But now as we are moving through this ascension process and acclimating to these energies we are now able to handle more and more and more of these energies that are coming from the galaxy, from the center of the galaxy, and many other places as well.

But now send energy out across the grid, across this Christ Consciousness grid, so that the energy moves around the planet at this grid level and then begins to drop as droplets of energy rain of light can be violet light, or gold light, pink light, whatever you would want it to be. Visualize whatever is coming to you as this energy falls to the Earth. And just as rain in a thunder storm falls and falls and falls and begins to create more and more water even a flood see it now becoming a tsunami of energy, a tsunami of light and love moving across the planet.

See now all beings of light, all beings on the planet, all life force on the planet becoming imbued with this light, this light from the Galactic Central Sun. This light that is now moving into all beings whether human, animal, plant, and mineral. All are feeling this light, this love move into them this consciousness shift that is happening because of these energies that are coming into the planet. And you as the light workers, the light warriors, you are the anchor of these energies. You are the ones that have anchored these energies for a long time and now are also the ones that begin to spread these energies more and more. So first you anchor them then you begin to spread them. First you as the light worker, then you become the warrior spreading the energy, spreading the love, spreading the knowledge.

So all now across the planet are feeling this energy this shift of consciousness. And know that on that day, that grand day that has been spoken of many times when the energy from the Galactic Central Sun is at last released and comes into the Earth. And you as the light workers and light warriors you will take this energy into your beings and because of the acclimating of these energies over a period of time you will feel and know this energy as a shift of consciousness that has come over all of mankind and all of life here on the planet. And you will know it as this, where as others across the planet will be unsure of what this is. They will need assistance and guidance to understand what has happened because this energy will be powerful. And for some it will raise you to the highest in your being and for others you will find they will find themselves falling to their knees, to the floor, because the energies will be so powerful. But yet all will make it through as they are meant to. So for a moment see these energies spreading across the planet to all life force, through all the people, through the plants and the animals, even into the rocks and stones themselves. Know that in that moment life will shift.

Now allow yourselves to begin to drift back from wherever you find yourselves back to the pillar of light that you came up in; back down toward the Earth towards your physical body; as you enter your physical body bring that sense of oneness that you felt even if momentarily bring that back into your body. And know as you come back into your body that you are The One. And now allow yourselves to come back into a complete state of consciousness and circulation, fully revitalized and refreshed.

SANANDA

I AM Sananda.

I will share with you only briefly and then I will turn this over to our dear brother Michael.

Understand as these energies keep accumulating, keep coming into the planet, keep bombarding the planet that you as the light workers and now those of you that have become the warriors, those of you that have decided to take action, those of you that know deep within you that this is what you came here for and that now is the time to begin to take the actions that you know to take. Because the times for sitting back to times for relaxing through all of this are nearly over. Those of you that came in with your missions you know of what I speak now. Many of you though, you know you have missions, you know you are here for these purposes but yet you still are unsure as to what is ahead for you, what you are to do. But whenever you ask, what am I to do? What can I do? What can I do to make a difference?

Whenever you ask that question the answer comes. Maybe not directly to your ears but it will come in some form. For when you truly are ready to begin to move about as a warrior of light those avenues for you to follow will present themselves. And I as Sananda now ask each and every one of you that listen in on this broadcast that read these words I ask each and every one of you to look deeply within yourself and now, if you are ready, ask that question: what can I do?

For you are all necessary to bring this entire process this ascension process about. We cannot do it. And we cannot do it for you but we can do it with you. We can assist we can guide and we are doing that but you are the ones now that need to take up the mantle once again and become who you were meant to be. And to realize and understand that you always were that. You always have been "The One".

I AM Sananda. All of my peace and love be with each of you as I turn this now over to Michael.

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL

I AM Archangel Michael.

It is always wonderful to be here and share with you and I add to what our dear Sananda has said that it is time now. It is time to move on. It is time to take these energies that you have that have been working within you and begin to work with those energies. Begin to assist those others around you wherever you can to guide them, to bring them into an awakening state if they show any inclination to do so. Because these energies that are coming into the planet now are becoming stronger and stronger and you will feel these energies in many different ways. Many times these energies will come in and they will literally floor you. At other times these energies will come in and you will feel at a blissful state as you have never felt before. But you are all feeling now in one way or another that something is afoot, something is changing, something in the air, something in the silence. Something in the colors that you are seeing. Something in the energies that you are seeing and feeling and knowing. But you know that there is something there that was not there before. But it is also something that you have known before. You have known from other systems other planets other realities that you have been, so it is familiar to you.

And because it is familiar to you, you are able to take these energies and run with them; to not let them bring you down. Yes at times you will feel symptoms of various kinds: heart palpitations, stomach cramps and aches, headaches, at times sleepiness, awakeness. All of these things though that you have been feeling, for a time are going to become stronger at various points and at other points become lessened. Because these energies are affecting all of you in many different ways. But each is an individual. Each is part of the collective, yes, but you are all individuals as well and each of you will feel and know these energies as they are meant for you in the moment that you are feeling them.

As you know there are many things that are happening and many different levels. Some you can see and hear, some you cannot yet because the veil that has been spoken of many times is still there for many of you even though it is not really there. But if you would understand and know when you have heard many times now to let go, to surrender all that you are to the Source within you, the Source of your being. Surrender that now. Surrender to the love. Surrender to the oneness and allow the collective consciousness, that you are all a part of, to become as one with all of life, all of existence. One with the Source and Source of the One.

I AM Michael. I leave you now with my Blue Sword of Truth held in your grasp and the Shield that I carry held in your other hand. And together with the Sword and the Shield nothing can penetrate and you can assist many others to understand and know the truth of their being as Disclosure, in many respects, is very near now. All of my peace and love be with you.

ONE WHO SERVES

Om Mani Padme Hum. Om Mani Padme Hum. Om. Om. Greetings to you!

One Who Serves here to assist you and guide you and do all the things that we do, because we do them! Because we love to do them! Be love to assist and guide and do everything that we can to be of service to you. And you in turn are being of service to us in many respects. You are the ones that are carrying the light. You are the ones that are anchoring the light. And yes now you are the ones that are spreading the light. So continue to do so. Continue to do everything that you can to be all that you came here to be because you all came here to be something and you all are something. Do you have questions here for One Who Serves?

Q & A

Zoe: I would just like to give an explanation to those on the phone of how they're able to get into the queue and ask questions. So in order to do that, press one on your phone and that will raise your hand. And when you're called upon tell us your name, where you are located, then ask your question briefly and succinctly. Right after you get your answer please press one again to remove yourself from the queue. And note to everyone if there is background noise on your end please mute yourself while listening to One Who Serves' response, otherwise if it's really distracting or drowning out One Who Serves we'll have to mute you from this end. So just be aware of what's going on around you and know that we hear everything and I mean and everything. But if we do mute you just hang on and after One Who Serves is done we'll get you back open so you can be heard. And one last thing it's an important note please only pose questions of a more general nature that would be of interest to all because One Who Serves will usually not answer personal questions unless they feel the answers would benefit a majority of the group. But they'll make the choice so One Who Serves do you want to start with questions from the house or do you want to start with questions on the phone?

OWS: Whatever is best here. Are there questions here in this room here first? Anything here?

Nothing here then we move on here. Are there questions on the phone here?

Q: When I say where I wish to go in the astral for example if I say oh I'm going to come up and see my family on the ships tonight and I say oh I'm going to go up and see Ashtar or I am going to go up and see Athena and I think to myself am I actually going there? Am I actually doing this? Are we actually going in the astral to visit our family on the ships when we make that intent?

OWS: So your question is are you actually going wherever you want to go? And the answer is very much so. If you intend to have a situation or a visit you might say on to ships or down into Inner Earth or the Cities of Light or across the universe, whatever it might be. If you intend to do that and you believe that you are doing that, then you are. But that is the question there. Do you believe it. If you are visualizing something you are using your visualization skills. They are more real than you even begin to believe with all of your programming in the past. Because you have been taught, you being the collective you, have been taught through all of your programming that your imagination isn't real, that it is not something that is part of your reality. But in fact it is more a part of your reality than your so-called reality is. You see? So as you are going through an astral projection or etheric or whatever it might be, if you are intending to be on the New Jerusalem or on another ship, possibly even of your own ship, and you project yourself there and believe that you are doing it, you are doing it. You see? Believing Is Seeing. Always remember that. You have been reprogrammed here in this group that Believing Is Seeing. Not the old way, (seeing is believing). Okay?

Q: I have taken the words given to us that as we raise our frequency we are not noticed so much by people of a lower frequency. I thought it was that like we're not noticed but I had an experience of actually being in a crowd of a whole lot of people and almost feel like I'm invisible which is odd to me because normally people do notice me because I'm pretty happy and smiley but I was really high that day and it felt like I literally wasn't seen and I wonder if when we get to the 5th dimension or as we bop in and out of it do we actually go invisible to people?

OWS: When you go through this ascension process, when you have ascended into the 5th dimension or higher, you will in this case as you're saying be invisible to those of a lower dimension. Now there will be times where you will be going back and forth. So at some time you will find yourself in the higher vibrations and yes you would be invisible to those or to the point where they would not know that you were there. Now this can even be, take for instance, you walk into a room where there are many who are at what you would say a lower vibration at that point. And you walk into the room with your higher vibration. They will be others there will very much not even be aware of you unless you want them to be. You see? So when you move into the higher vibrations, into the higher dimensions, you can be visible to those of a lower dimension if you will want to be. But if you do not want to be then you won't. You see it is just as if we as the so-called Ascended Masters here, we could come and be here with you if we wanted to be. If we wanted to lower ourselves down to your vibration – we're not going to do that -- but if we wanted to we could. You see? But, if you as the ones here in the group and that your next Advance, if you are able to raise your vibrations into higher frequencies and wish for a what you would call a manifestation, then we can provide that. You see? That, by the way, was a hint for all of you.

Q: So if we're not cognizant of it and we're walking around in a really high vibration we literally go invisible.

OWS: That is correct. Read the book or watch the movie The Celestine Prophecy. It is in there.

Q: My question is about the attraction process. What [the previous caller] was saying about people just disappearing based on their vibration to others. Isn't that simply the attraction process? And to clarify when you walk into a room the people that ignore you are ignoring you because they can't they're not congruous with your vibration so there's no attraction there. So isn't that kind of what it is? It's the attraction process happening?

OWS: That is correct. Very much so. That is always the case. Like attracts like. And you as the ones who are working through this process, this light worker/ light warrior process and all of this, you are the ones that are finding yourselves more and more attracted to those who are also doing so. Those who are working on coming into higher vibrations you want to be around others that are in higher vibrations. You do not want to be around ones that are moping or in depressed state or even ill or anything of this nature. You see? Because you are seeking to find yourselves more and more out of this three-dimensional illusion that you have been programmed into for a very long time. So you are finding yourselves more and more attracted to the higher frequencies and what comes within those higher frequencies: perfect health, perfect understanding. Knowing everything as it needs to be within your higher vibration at the time. You see?

Then we are done for the time and we are going to release channel. Know that as you continue through this process, everything is exactly as it needs to be and you are right where you need to be. So do not be concerned about those things that you find happening outside of yourself no matter what they may be, because as we have said things may get a little rocky here and they may get more and more so for little bit of time. Because those of the forces of darkness are still at it. They are doing what they can to hold off this ascension. They do not want it; they do not want you to have it. So the closer and closer you come to coming together as a collective, becoming united, they are losing more and more of their power and their control. So work at all that you can within yourself and then with all of those around you to come into a united state. Okay?

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.

Zoe: Thank you all for joining us today. If you plan on attending next Sunday's group meeting either in person or by phone, please rsvp at www.meetup.com/Ancient-Awakenings

Our website is www.AncientAwakenings.org and there you can find interesting blog posts on various topics we've discussed, recordings of the weekly channelings, and a whole bunch of other tabs to explore.

Our FaceBook page is AncientAwakenings on fb. (as in face book)

And our next BlogTalk show will fall on the 5th of November – so that'll be the first Sunday in November.

James are you back?

James: Yes I'm back. Thank you Zoe so much for everything you did. You did a good job and Rita wonderful for what you added. Thank all of you. And of course Moses who is in the background. He is always in the background doing everything that we need you to do and he's been indispensable. Mahendran here with a communication end of things and lending us his home in each week is wonderful. We've got Eric who does a whole lot of things to bring about the YouTube videos and I think I'm missing a couple of people would do translations I think Vincent does translations. And then of course Charles and all that he adds to he inputs into everything for us. So we appreciate everybody and everybody's help.

Anybody have any comments about the meditation or anything they want to share. I don't know if they can do that can they Zoe unless they get into the queue?

Yes they would have to press one.

Q: Yes I just want to say thank you. Wonderful. It was wonderful. I really enjoyed this first radio show. I know it was quiet today but I just wonder say one thing. The One Who Serves says manifest and it will happen when you guys are going to be doing the Advance and I'm not to because I can't come. I might be able to hear on the phone but I won't be there in person to see a manifestation possibly in person.

James: I just heard on that for anybody that's joining us at the Advance that's on the phone with us that Sananda calls with us will be participating at a level that is beyond just being on the phone ... if that makes any sense. So again if you Believe Then You Will See. So if they were to actually do some kind of a manifestation in the room with us, if you are on there with us at that time they would also provide some sort of a manifestation for you as well where you are. That's what I'm receiving right now.

Q: That would be absolutely wonderful. I'd love to come but I just can't. But I will be on the phone and I would be blessed if that could happen. With all my heart I would be blessed to see a manifestation so thank you James.

Q: I just wanted to say that I had been formulating a question about love attraction and then Joanna came right in with the question. So that was really cool. Thank you.

James: Talk about synchronicity, huh?!

Q: Absolutely. Yes and in this group I just want to say that as I'm going through my process here this group is really giving me continuity and I just want to express my appreciation. So thank you.

James: Well thank you. Thank you. That's what we're here for is to bring everybody together and give everybody a space to share what they're feeling you know different things that they're going through because many of us are going through the same things. Maybe at different times but we're all dealing with some of the same stuff. We're all in the same boat together.

Q: Yeah. Knowing that we're not alone. Even, you know when we're out in the world feeling sometimes like you're on your own or what have you, just knowing that you're not. And I just know it and feel it and this group helps bring that clarity. So it's lovely

James: I wanted to say something to Rita. That was wonderful what you did on the numerology and the whole idea of one (1) and how interesting it is that this first one fell on October 1st, 2017 which if you put it all together is nothing but ones.

Rita: And yes nothing is an accident. I think it was planned for it to be the 1st of October.

James: That's what I was saying. New beginnings.

And I didn't mention this before but I had a dream the other night and I don't usually share too many dreams but this particular one had to do with numerology. So since we're talking about that I'll just bring it up quickly. It had to do with there is a little bit of background which I have to give just a tiny bit of that.

I watched the movie again the second "Pirates of the Caribbean" movies and in it there was a dice game that they were playing. And when I watched the movie and watched this dice game I had no idea what they were doing in the game. But in the dream I knew exactly what the game was and how they were playing it. But anyway it came up with 12 threes and if you take that into what with 12 threes that's 36 and three and six is nine so right before this show, which is new beginnings, I had a dream which said an ending. Nine is ending. Nine is the end of something and I think it all correlates. And I just realized that now in this moment as I'm telling you how it came together like that. So nine before -- end of things -- and new beginnings starting. And people have been saying that this October is new beginnings of a lot of things that are going to be going on.

They didn't necessarily mention it in the messages today specifically as to what might be happening but many of us have gotten the sense that there are so many things that are in the works that could develop any one of these days or nights. So I guess it's just continue to get ready and keep those seatbelts fastened for things could get rocky.

Q: Can you give an update on how many participants you have in the advance so far.

Joanna: 25

James: Regarding the [upcoming December] Advance: so far we set aside 15 rooms for the Advance. This is just people coming in person obviously so we set aside 15 rooms and 9 have been taken so far and we know of 3 more that will also be taken. So we only have 3 rooms left. So anybody that wants to get in on being there live and in person with us needs to get on the stick and get that happening reserve your room at the inn. If you have any questions about how to do that just ask Joanna about what needs to happen and you can be a part of that with us. But got to get a move on because people jumped in and took the spaces pretty quickly. And we've got a maximum of 30 people that we can have there and we're at 25 now so were really close. So that's that on the Advance. And of course those of you who can't make it in person you can always be on the phone with us so just RSVP for it whenever you're ready and you can be there on the phone so in that way live with us at the time for the entire time period.

Joanna: So I wasn't here for the numerology but I get it. So I want to say something about numbers. It's extremely important that people pay attention to numbers because numbers are the universal language and they're indicators of where we are in consciousness. And there's so much that developed the numbers that it would benefit everyone to research a little bit about basic numerology because numbers are so important; including your birth number and what that shakes down to because that is an indicator of how your life Path is going and what we need to do.

I'm just very excited about numbers. The other thing is if we study the thing called Base Three which is a mathematical thing -- which don't ask me. I don't understand all of it. But some of the whistleblowers like Corey Goode and David Wilcock have talked about Base Three Math.

We have a Base Ten Math but Base Three resolves everything. There's nothing left over. So for example we all know that PI is 3.14 to infinity, basically it never resolves itself. But in Base Three Math, everything resolves itself equally numerically. If you guys have been watching anything to do with Nazca mummies they all have three fingers. So essentially we've been told there are many, many extraterrestrial cultures use Base Three Math because it resolves itself and it basically is perfection in a mathematical way. So in building something etc. when you use Base Three everything is perfect. So I just wanted to say that and I want to say that is important that we all pay attention to numbers. That's my experience. Thanks.

Q: I am seeing the number 33 everywhere. It's just 33, 33, 33. It's in everything and everywhere I go. It's a master number. My birthday, which is the 11th, which is another master number -- 11th of March -- but I see 33 because it's 11 -22 -33 being final on the last and I feel like okay so I was born on 11 March. I would say I've done 33. I've done 11 I've been through multiple initiations in masonry. I've gone into the 22nd and now I've into 33 because I see 33 everywhere. So I just want to touch base on that.

Rita: I was just going to tell her if you add three and three -- which usually you don't break down master numbers -- but in case you might be living under the vibes of six because master numbers are very difficult to live under and sometimes they can't, people cannot. They're very high energy. But if you add three and three, makes six. That is a loving number. It's always love is what the numerology what represents with the numbers six. And Venus rules six. Even the planets rule the numbers. Like if you take Mars and Aries which is astrology which goes hand-in-hand, Mars is war, and you get those two together very fiery with temper and this that and the other. So all those things work hand-in-hand and all works out goes on and on and on.

Q: Yes thank you Rita. It is hard living under master numbers and working through master numbers. And that I do come across the number 6 often, too.

Joanna: What I wanted to say was that it took Anne DeHart years to build up a radio audience and we're just starting again and I just want to say how important everybody is to this movement, how important everybody is in the room. And I just want each person to acknowledge their importance not in an egotistical way but that each person is part of the collective and it's very important that we continue focusing on this work and moving forward together, and never ever ever think that you are not important to the work. And you not showing up or you not being on the phone, you're not missed because you're sorely missed. People are missed in the room. They're missed on the phone. They're missed in the audience because we are a collective. We are a fringe element in this world right now like in terms of raising the vibration and creating the ascension we're just a fringe element and when people fall off and stop participating we feel it. [Expressions of agreement] There is a few people missing in the room today and we walk in and we go "oh," because the energy is lowered, the feeling is lowered. The idea that maybe they didn't show up because we're not important to them or they don't think they're important to us. All that is just third dimensional stuff. We have to realize that we must participate to make this happen for all of us. So that's what I wanted to say. Thank you so much for whoever did participate. Thank you very, very much for doing that.

James: I totally agree with that and that's basically the light worker versus light warrior mentality. As soon as you realize that they've been saying that we are now the warriors and we're going to be needing to share the light, then it becomes a whole different ballgame basically rather than just sit back now we need to do things to take action whatever that might be. And sometimes that might be just being in a group and doing a collective guided meditation. So it all helps.

Closing Prayer:

Marilou: We reach out in gratitude and appreciation for one another for being here, for being guided to this wonderful place of ascension. We are ascended. We will always be ascended. And I love this planet, and I know we all do, and we deserve to be here to enjoy it. And I Am grateful. (We forget to say thank you to the planet.)

All: Thank you. Good bye.
